EXCLUSIVE ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT SUNDAY IN COLORADO SPRINGS

NO. 7600 30TH YEAR. COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1901. TEN PAGES PRICE FIVE CENTS

PANAMA IS THREATENED

Attack on That City by a Force of Insurgents Is Imminent.

THE IOWA WILL LAND FORCES

Business Has Been Resumed at Colon --Liberal Leader Is Expected to Arrive There Soon.

By Associated Press.

Colon, Colombia, Nov. 22, 5 p. m. The latest news obtainable here is to the effect that the Liberal General Buge has arrived at Empire station, distant about 12 miles from Panama with a force said to number 1,000 men. The Liberals are gaining and arming many recruits along the entire length of the railroad and now control the line up to within a point two miles from Panama. An attack on that city is expected momentarily and much uneasiness is felt there. The Liberal leader, Domingo Diaz, is expected shortly to arrive at Colon.

It is rumored here that Buena Ventura, a Colombian port on the Pacific coast about 400 miles south of Panama, has been taken by the Liberals. Confirmation of this report is lacking.

Marines from the gunboat Machias still guard the station and property of the railroad here.

The battleship Iowa will land force at Panama when the necessity arises.

The Liberals here have already given notice that the ad valorem duty on goods disembarked at Colon will henceforth be 10 per cent, not 20 per cent, as formerly. All the stores in Colon are open today and business has been resumed.

The Colombian gunboat General Pinzon is believed to be along the coast somewhere near Colon, as when she left here she was out of coal.

Transit across the isthmus is still free and uninterrupted.

ANOTHER INCIPIENT VENEZUELAN REVOLUTION

By Associated Press.

Willemstad, Island of Curacoa, Nov. 22.—(via Haytien cable.) The arrest yesterday at Puerto Cabello of Ramon Iscrise, the Venezuelan minister of war, who was elected last month to the post of second vice president of the republic, is reported here to have caused much excitement throughout Venezuela.

President Castro has cabled his representatives here, saying the present revolutionary movement, which is beginning to be called the Matos revolution, has been frustrated. The truth of his statement is denied here, where it is said this revolution has not yet begun. A steamer alleged to have on board five million cartridges and 10,000 Mauser rifles, destined for the use of Venezuelan revolutionists, is expected to arrive in the West Indies about the middle of December. The representatives of this revolutionary movement now here say the revolt will start after these arms and ammunition are available, and that the movement will receive the active or passive co-operation of large numbers of Venezuelans who say they are becoming tired of the existing state of affairs in Venezuela, which is characterized by General Castro's political opponents as the "state of anarchy and persecution created by the Castro government."

From recent reports received here, it appears that a number of inoffensive traders and citizens, incapable of starting a revolution, have been arrested in Venezuela at the government's orders. It is further said that these political prisoners are to be held as hostages for a premeditated forced loan by the government.

ADDITIONAL DETAILS OF THE YUKON CONSPIRACY

By Associated Press.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 22.—The Times prints the following from Victoria, B. C.:

There was an organized conspiracy to raze Dawson, secure the mounted police with their arms, loot the banks and pillage the property of the rich northern gold fields. These facts are confirmed.

James Seeley, formerly of this city, who is now head of the secret service in the mounted police, is in this city and says that not only was there a conspiracy to overthrow Canadian rule in the Yukon and loot Dawson, but the scheme hatched by the conspirators was a very feasible one and had its existence not been discovered by the secret service of the Yukon and nipped in the bud the conspirators might have accomplished their purpose and after taking Dawson could have held that place and the Yukon for six weeks or two months. By then they would be overwhelmed and each man of the raiders would be a fugitive from the avengers.

The conspiracy was born at Dawson and had a branch at Skagway, but no existence in any other point in the south of Skagway, although efforts were made to secure the assistance of pro-Boer sympathizers in Seattle and other points in the United States. It was at Dawson that the plot was arranged last summer. Several American Feniens who had drifted to Dawson, got together and formed an organization which was the "Order of the Midnight Sun." A number of others were gathered in and the order grew until there were several hundred adherents in September when the secret service men became aware of its existence.

MR. DICKINSON'S LATEST CONDITIONS TO BRIGANDS

By Associated Press.

Sofia, Nov. 22. Mr. Dickinson, the diplomatic agent here of the United States, started today for Constantinople, there to confer with Spencer Eddy, secretary of the United States legation, as to the best means of settling a solution in the deadlock which has arisen in the negotiations over the release of Miss Stone.

Mr. Dickinson will probably return here bringing with him cash with which to pay Miss Stone's ransom, as her kidnapers insist that this payment shall be made in Turkish gold.

Mr. Dickinson is considering the advisability of presenting an ultimatum to the brigands in which he will fix 10 days as the period within which £10,000 may be accepted by the brigands as Miss Stone's ransom. If this proposal is not accepted by her captors all dealing with the bandits, so far as the United States is concerned, will cease.

If these conditions have not already been dictated by Mr. Dickinson the ultimatum comprising them will almost certainly be delivered as soon as the American diplomatic agent returns from Constantinople.

According to information here both captives are in good health. They are kept in a village near Dubnitza, whither they were taken blindfolded and where only rude comforts are obtainable. A later report, however, according to the statement of a person who arrived from Dubnitza last night, is that the captives have been removed from a village near Dubnitza to a point near the frontier and that Miss Stone got wet while crossing the river Struma.

ENCOURAGING REPORTS FROM ISLAND OF SAMAR

By Associated Press.

Manila, Nov. 22. News received here from the island of Samar is encouraging, although up to the present time there have been no wholesale surrenders of natives. The Filipinos captured there by our troops show evidences of suffering and hunger. The coasts of the island are closely patrolled by gunboats and the use of the searchlight makes it almost impossible for the natives to land supplies on the island for the insurgents. The patrolling gunboats have captured over $2,000 in cash and $100,000 worth of hemp upon which a tax had been paid to the insurgents, has been confiscated. The system of taxation and the collection of taxes maintained by the insurgent leader, Lukban, was perfect and exhaustive in every particular and produced revenue from bitlis, marriages, deaths, cock-fights and from the sale of goods of Samar. Hemp was the most important feature of commerce, 20 per cent. of its price was given to the local presidentes, who collected the majority of the island's revenue from those natives who had sworn allegiance to the United States and turned it over to the rebel authorities.

Smallpox is raging in the southern islands of the archipelago.

The United States Filipino commission is preparing an act to compel everybody to be vaccinated.

It has been officially reported to General Chaffee that the insurgent leader, Catubig, has 500 fully armed men, including a number of American negroes, under his command in La Guna province, Luzon. An insurgent officer has just been captured, carrying papers dated Mauban, La Guna province, November 18, and signed by Cabellos. The prisoner admits that Cabellos has 1,000 men with him and contemplated attacking Mauban. This, probably, accounts for the fact that yesterday the telegraph lines were cut near Mauban and in several places the supporting poles were found to have been removed.

SCHLEY'S INVITATION.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Admiral Schley today accepted the invitation of the Hamilton club of Chicago to be its guest of honor at a dinner to be given at some future date.

A reception, to which as many as can be accommodated will be invited, will precede the dinner.

Admiral Schley also will attend a public function in his honor at Memphis, Tenn., but no other than these two invitations will be accepted by him.

PRESIDENT'S VACATION.

Washington, Nov. 22.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by their children, left here this afternoon on the yacht Sylph for a brief cruise down the Potomac. A presidential salute of 21 guns was fired as the president went aboard the yacht. The president and family will be gone a day or two.

The Only Thing That Unnerves President Roosevelt.

The only thing that unnerves President Roosevelt is literary composition. He brings to the task of writing a book the same absorbing and untiring energy that he displays in warfare, the chase, and political campaigning; the work is necessarily confining and prolonged confinement and close occupation become irksome and debilitating to a man of robust build and sanguine temperament, accustomed to being much in the open air. It suits some people perfectly. One well-known author of my acquaintance, not far from 70 years of age, works in his library from 12 to 15 hours a day, sitting foot outdoors but once a week; yet he has never known a day's illness, and is one of the least nervous men in America. Sedentary occupation agrees with him; he thrives on it. Not so the president; yet with characteristic grit he has faced the ordeal of authorship to such good purpose that a dozen works from his pen have made their appearance within the past 19 years. And this in the course of an arduous career covering almost the entire period of his literary activity. (From "A Man of Letters in the White House," by Joseph B. Gilder, in the November Critic.

LAUCHHEIMER DENIES LEAGUE AGAINST MEADE

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 22.—When the officers who comprise the court which is trying Colonel Meade resumed their investigations today, Captain Benjamin A. Fuller, assistant judge advocate, who was judge advocate at the court of inquiry held in the navy yard last July, testified to what had taken place there.

On cross-examination the witness stated that once when he was on duty at the Boston navy yard Major Lauchheimer came to his (Captain Fuller's) room and said he had just come from the Puritan club after closing it up.

"What was his condition? Was he sober or tight?" asked Lawyer Semple.

"He was under the influence of liquor," replied the witness.

The witness then went on to state that he had induced Major Lauchheimer to go to his room, but the major returned later, having removed his outer garments and Captain Fuller had to draw a curtain over the window in order to screen his visitor.

Colonel George S. Reed, U. S. M. C., testified that after Major Lauchheimer had returned to Washington from his inspection of the marine barracks at Brooklyn the major told him that he was embarrassed during his inspection and drill on account of the inebriated condition of Colonel Meade, and the witness says that he told the major that the only thing for an inspection officer was to state the truth in his report. The witness said he never heard of any effort of any officer to prevent Colonel Meade succeeding to the brigadier generalship of the marine corps. He told of Colonel Meade being advanced two numbers on account of his courage and efficiency at the battle of Tien-tsin.

Lieutenant Harold C. Snyder, of Colonel Haywood's staff, testified that he had never heard of any effort to discredit Colonel Meade or prevent his his candidacy for succeeding Brigadier General Haywood whose time for retirement will be in October, 1905.

Major Charles H. Lauchheimer was recalled and in answer to the judge advocate said that he had not solicited the orders which directed him to inspect the marine barracks in Brooklyn in June last. He emphatically denied that he had in any way tried to injure Colonel Meade and said that he had never entered into any conspiracy or league with any person in order to injure or retard Colonel Meade in his succession to the position of brigadier general of the marine corps.

In reply to the judge advocate in direct examination the major said in September, 1899, he had been ordered to Boston, where he was in consultation with the district attorney for several days regarding a legal matter in connection with the department. He was a guest of Captain Kane at the navy yard and had dined at Captain Kane's house prior to going to the progressive party at Colonel Meade's. He had a cocktail before dinner and probably some claret during the dinner that evening, and went to Colonel Meade's house in company with Captain and Mrs. Kane. He said he was absolutely sober on that occasion and did not arrive late. He never appeared at any gentleman's house in a maudlin condition and he denied that his conduct on that evening was anything other than that of a gentleman. He told of his being the guest of the Puritan club in Boston and said that on one occasion he had given a dinner to five or six gentlemen whom he had met there, in recognition of their being extremely courteous to him during his visits to the club.

On cross-examination by Lawyer Semple, the major admitted that the party had cocktails before dinner, champagne during dinner and cordials afterward. When asked about his visit to Captain Fuller's quarters, the witness said that he was invited there to a poker game after he had given the dinner at the club. He denied that his conduct at the club had been criticised, but acknowledged that when he reached Captain Fuller's quarters he was not sober.

CRESCEUS A VISITOR IN CITY YESTERDAY

For 20 minutes yesterday morning Cresceus, the world's fastest trotting horse, was in Colorado Springs.

He arrived from Pueblo in a Wells-Fargo & Co.'s express car, fitted up especially for his use, and after remaining at the Santa Fe depot in this city for 20 minutes, proceeded west in the same car, in which he will make the journey to California to remain all winter.

The car in which Cresceus is making his journey is heated with a parlor range, and is probably the most elaborately furnished and comfortable car that was ever fitted up for a horse. Cresceus and a running horse that belongs to Mr. Ketcham, owner of Cresceus, occupy half the car. The other half is furnished with beds and chairs, writing tables, etc., for the use of the two attendants of the great trotter.

Mr. W. W. Cowen, general agent for the Wells-Fargo people here, had a small company of admiring friends at the station to make the acquaintance of Cresceus.

"SAILOR JACK" IS NOW A KNOCKER

"Sailor Jack" Lewis, who used to be a "trusty" is now a "knocker." He [illegible] now and works for the city on the rock pile.

About two weeks ago Jack Lewis, otherwise known as "Sailor Jack," on account of the frequency with which he has his sea legs on, was arrested by the police for drunkenness and was given a heavy sentence to work out because he could not pay the fine. He was a "trusty" at the city jail, however, and had been allowed to sleep down in the basement where the hammers are kept in a barrel.

The temptation was apparently too much for Lewis, who for two weeks had been unable, on account of serving his sentence, to procure a drink of whisky. Yesterday Jack took one of the hammers and disposed of it to John Campbell, who is the proprietor of a feed store in this city. Campbell scented something wrong when he was able to purchase the hammer for ten cents, and thought he recognized the hammer as belonging to the city. He, therefore, took it to the police and it was discovered that there were several hammers missing. Lewis declined to say where he had sold the other hammers.

When "Sailor Jack" does any "knocking" now he takes a city hammer but he can't get rid of it for some time for he has a ball and chain attached to his ankle.

INTERESTING EVENTS FOR RACE MATINEE

An interesting program has been arranged for the regular matinee races at Roswell park this afternoon. Some first-class sport is promised those who go up to the track. The races will begin at 1 o'clock sharp.

There will be three good events. Dr. Shideler and Bill Nye have a match race for a purse of $100. C. K. W. and Susie R. will also have a match race. Eva Victor, John R. and Peter have been entered for a race.

The Drama and the Novel.

Playwriting in the days of old was looked upon as the proper schooling for the successful novelist, because it gave him a knowledge of character-drawing which was to be gained in no other way. Cervantes underwent this preliminary study. It was Fielding's early training for the theater which resulted in his consummate ability. Scott was the first author who, after having achieved success as a novelist, witnessed the stage concoction to use Garrick's term of his themes. The Waverley novels, with their dramatic features and animated dialogue, opened up a ready field for stage adaptors. As a usual thing each plot was precise and well developed, the characters consistently the details of local and contemporary knowledge affluent and accurate. "Guy Mannering," produced at Covent Garden, on March 12, 1816, as an operatic play in three acts, met with unbounded success, as did a succeeding version, which was produced a few years later at the Lyceum theater, under the title of "The Witch of Derncleugh." "Rob Roy Macgregor," the stage version of which was made by Pocock, an experienced dramatist, was produced at Covent Garden on March 12, 1818; and it afforded Macready his first opportunity of making a strong bid for popularity. Just popularity which comes at the call of genius; the play was produced more times than any other play of the generation. "The Heart of Midlothian," "Children of the Mist," "Kenilworth," and "Maid of Judah" followed in succession, as fast as they were issued from the press.

The dramatizing of popular novels brings up the question of morality again. In the first place the adapter must sacrifice much that was artistic in the book and substitute the conventionalities of the stage; discussions of a religious or theological nature must be omitted; certain social problems which in the novel have been dealt with, with all the nakedness of realism, must be recast to meet the requirements of the stage. It has been pointed out as a fair postulate that art is not bound to respect morals. The statement is true to a certain extent. Some years ago Dr. Lyman Abbott preached a sermon on this subject, and its salient points are worth remembering:

1. It is not the function of the drama to teach moral lessons.

2. A moral lesson neither makes nor mars either a drama or a novel.

3. The moral quality of a play does not depend upon the result.

4. The real function of the drama is like that of the novel not to amuse, not to excite, but to portray life, and so to minister to it. And as virtue and vice, goodness and evil, are the great fundamental facts of life, they must, in either serious story or serious play, be portrayed. If they are so portrayed that the vice is alluring and the virtue repugnant, the play or story is immoral. If they are so portrayed that the vice is repellant and the virtue alluring, the play or story is moral. (Ingram A. Pyle in Modern Culture for November.

WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIP.

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 22. Ernest Roeber, the champion, defeated Nechad, the Turk, tonight in a Grecian-Roman wrestling contest for the championship at the Lennox Lyceum in this city.

The terms of the match were that the men were to wrestle for two hours. In the first hour neither man secured a fall. After a 15 minute interval the contest was continued and after 21 minutes Roeber succeeded in putting his man on the floor. The rest of the time gave no further result and Roeber was declared the winner. Bob Fitzsimmons was timekeeper. After the result was declared Roeber announced that he would retire from the wrestling ring.

GROVER CLEVELAND ILL.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 22. Reports come from Princeton, N. J., that ex-President Cleveland is ill at his home at that place. Mr. Cleveland recently returned from a hunting trip, was taken ill with a chill and was threatened with pneumonia.

Inquiry at his home tonight elicited the information that he is very much improved. His condition is not believed to be dangerous.

Pan-Europeanism a Failure.

Nothing less than the supreme realization of the commercial side of empire will be needed to plunge England and America into a war of tariffs, says Sydney Brooks in the November Atlantic. For the rest, Englishmen laugh at Pan-Europeanism. The weapon has been used against themselves, and even in the grasp of a master hand it snapped like a twig. What Napoleon could not effect against England, the concert of Europe is hardly likely to effect against America. Such, at any rate, is the English view, both popular and official. England will have no hand in forging the new weapon; still less will she direct it. One may even go farther and with not less assurance. Were united Europe, in some freak of madness, to attempt, as it has actually been suggested she might attempt, to prohibit American exports by force, England would be compelled by sheer national necessity to join with America in frustrating it.

After all, Arapahoe county is not the state of Colorado. The vote on last election day put a large number of conities back into the Republican column that for several years have been Democratic and Populist. (Littleton Independent.

BURLINGTON SOLICITOR DENIES ALLEGED COMBINE

By Associated Press.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 22.—General G. F. Manderson, general solicitor of the Burlington road, said today that the report sent out from Lincoln that General Manager Holdredge of his road had held important conferences with Governor Savage with regard to proposed suits against the roads concerned in the Hill-Harriman plans, was absolutely without foundation.

"There has been no combine, so far as the Burlington is concerned," he said, "and we have too many live matters on hand to worry about those that have not come to life yet.

"It is true Mr. Holdredge was at Lincoln, but he did not go there for the purpose of sounding the governor on this subject, as the dispatches stated, nor do I think that it even came to a discussion."

A special to an evening paper from Lincoln says:

"Governor Savage, who recently consulted with Attorney General Prout in regard to investigating the conclusion of the various northwestern railways, with a view to obstructing the deal is a violation of the state law was apparent, makes a statement today declining to meet Governor Van Sant of Minnesota, to discuss the suppression of the merger. He says there is no consolidation apparent in Nebraska, and Minnesota affairs are not subject to Nebraska interference."

PASSENGER AGENTS BEHIND SCHEDULE

By Associated Press.

Salt Lake, Nov. 22. The special train carrying the passenger agents of the principal railroads of the country, arrived in this city from the Pacific coast at 4 a. m. today, eight hours behind schedule time. The delay was due to the accident at Boca, Calif. The members of the party who were injured in the wreck are reported to be doing nicely and remained in their Pullmans while the balance of the party left the train and were entertained during their brief stay by local railroad officials. The special left at 8 p. m. for Glenwood Springs.

ANNUAL MEETING OF CATHOLIC ARCHBISHOPS

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 22. The annual meeting of the archbishops of the United States, which has been in session at the Catholic university for several days, adjourned today.

Archbishop Keane of Dubuque, secretary of the meeting announced that today's session was devoted to consideration of the internal affairs of the hierarchy and that the catechisms and the Lenten regulations were the main subjects discussed, but that no action of any importance was taken.

Archbishop Keane also announced that as a result of the consideration of Indian funds, the archbishops in their various dioceses will actively press the matter of funds for the Catholic Indian church in the Catholic Indian schools.

HARVARD'S CONFIDENCE IS SOMEWHAT SHAKEN

By Associated Press.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 22. Confidence in the prospects of the Harvard team in its game with Yale tomorrow was shaken late tonight by the announcement that the athletic committee would meet in the morning to definitely pass on Light Tackle Cutts' status. This came as a surprise as Harvard men had no knowledge, and in fact they have none yet, of any evidence submitted by Yale or any one else upon which to base the question of Cutts' ineligibility. Cutts' substitute is Dick Lawrence, brother to George Lawrence of last year's team, but his form is far below that of Cutts, both in the line and in rushing the ball at tandem tackles formation.

GIESIAS WILL BE GIVEN A FAIR TRIAL

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 22. Governor Hunt of Puerto Rico, and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, had a talk with the president toda about the case of Santiago Iglesias, the representative of the Federation of Labor recently arrested on his arrival at San Juan, on the charge of conspiring to raise wages. Mr. Gompers says he will stand by Iglesias as the charge of conspiracy to raise wages is the only one against him. Both Governor Hunt and President Roosevelt assured Mr. Gompers that Iglesias would have a fair trial and that all his rights would be protected.

MRS. BONINE'S TRIAL.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 22. Five witnesses were heard today in the trial of Mrs. Ida Bonine for the murder of James S. Ayres, Jr. Four of these witnesses were policemen who had gone to Ayres' room after discovery of the body by employes of the Kenmore hotel, and the fifth was W. W. Warfield, who was proprietor of the hotel at the time of the tragedy. The policemen testified to details of the wounds, position of the body and arrangement of the furniture in the room.

Mr. Warfield's testimony was very brief. In response to a question by Attorney Fulton, of Mrs. Bonine's counsel, he said that Mrs. Bonine had made arrangements to leave the hotel before the tragedy occurred, but both the question and answer subsequently were ruled out. It is understood to be the intention of the defense to recall Mr. Warfield later for the purpose of eliciting information from him upon this and other points to Mrs. Bonine's behalf.

Only once during the day did Mrs. Bonine display emotion, and that was when the bloody undershirt which had been worn by Ayres on the night of the killing was identified by Officer Brady.

The court adjourned until Monday to give the attorneys in the case an opportunity to prepare themselves for the work in hand.

W. C. T. U. FUNDS.

By Associated Press.

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 22.—The report of the committee on appropriations of the national W. C. T. U. was adopted by the executive board before adjournment. Fifty-eight dollars are given to the president, vice president, treasurer and secretary. "The Y" branch gets $800 and "L. T. L." $500. The departments get an aggregate of $7,255. Among the various appropriations for departmental work are:

Legislation, $1,000; foreign-speaking people and missionary on Ellis island, $650; colored people, $500; scientific temperance institution, $700; soldiers and sailors, $250; anti-narcotics, $200; physical education, $250; purity, $200; non-alcoholic medication, $350; franchise, $175. Total appropriation for the year, $14,555.

VICTORY FOR SCALPERS.

By Associated Press.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 22.—The law passed by the last legislature prohibiting ticket scalping was today declared to be unconstitutional by the court of appeals. The decision was rendered in the case of Clarence Fleischman, a ticket broker of Buffalo, versus Sheriff Samuel Caldwell, of Erie county.

NEW POLICY FOR INDIANS

Proposition Outlined by Commissioner Jones in Annual Report.

SHOULD BE SELF-SUPPORTING

Present System Is Criticised---The Indian Should Be Thrown Upon His Own Resources.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 22. A policy which, it is contended, will settle the entire Indian question within a generation is announced by Commissioner of Indian Affairs William Jones in his annual report made public today. His plan is to give the Indian opportunity for self-support, the same protection of his person and property as given others, throw him on his own resources and to enforce on him realization of the dignity of labor and the importance of building and maintaining a home for himself.

Mr. Jones says that at the outset the Indian must have aid and instruction and necessaries doubtless will have to be furnished him until his labor becomes productive. Until the Indian has become a part of the community in which he lives, day schools, the commissioner says, should be established at convenient places where the Indian may learn enough for ordinary business transactions. The key to the whole situation, the commissioner suggests, is the home. The larger and more powerful tribes, he adds, are located in an arid region, on unproductive reservations, often in a rigorous climate where there is no chance to make even a living. In these cases something should be done quickly toward placing such Indians in a position where they can support themselves.

Commissioner Jones says the cutting off of rations from all Indians except those who are incapacitated from earning support, has had very gratifying results, and, if followed up, ultimately will lead to abolition of the reservation and the absorption of the Indian into our body politic.

He makes the statement that the present Indian educational system taken as a whole is not calculated to produce the results that were anticipated and may be added to the obstacles to independence and self-support under which class Mr. Jones had placed indiscriminate issue of rations, periodical distribution of large sums of money and the general leasing of allotments.

In the last 33 years, the report says, over $240,000,000 has been spent on an Indian population not exceeding 18,000. Notwithstanding this the Indian is still on his reservation, being fed; money is still being paid him; he is still dependent on the government for existence, and he is "little, if any, nearer the goal of independence than he was 30 years ago, and if the present policy is continued he could get little if any nearer in the next 30 years to come."

TWENTY-FIVE VICTIMS OF SMUGGLER-UNION DISASTER

By Associated Press.

Telluride, Colo., Nov. 22. The work of recovering the bodies of the victims of the disaster in the Smuggler-Union mine has progressed slowly until at 11 o'clock today, 60 hours after the breaking out of the fire at the mouth of the Bullion tunnel, the last body was brought to the surface. It was that of John Nevala and was found in one of the stopes of the seventh level. The death list now numbers 25, the brave engineer who sacrificed himself in an effort to rescue his comrades having died this afternoon. He never regained consciousness after being taken from the mine and was only kept alive so long by the most arduous work of the physicians in attendance.

The revised list of dead is as follows:

AUGUST KAAUTER, Finlander, family living at Telluride.

CHARLES MACKI, wife living in Telluride.

THORWALD TORKELSON, wife in Norway.

WILLIAM MERRIWEATHER, wife and family at North Fork.

JOHN NEVALA, wife living in Telluride.

Except those indicated all were single men so far as is known.

All in the mine at the time of the fire are now accounted for and at noon the search for bodies was practically abandoned. There is yet a possibility that others may be found in stopes not yet reached, but this is not thought probable, for the day shift did not have time to reach any distant stopes before the alarm of fire was given.

The exploration of the ninth level was completed today, but no bodies were found. The workings are not yet sufficiently free from gas to make it entirely safe to explore all parts of them.

The responsibility for the disaster has not yet been fixed and no one at Telluride is being blamed. The coroner has held an inquest over the bodies at the morgue and several of them have been sent to relatives in various parts of the state. The citizens today completed arrangements to bury the others with honors tomorrow afternoon. All places of business will close at the request of the mayor. The services will be held in the theater and all the ministers in the city will take part.

It is said that the company will close its mine for about 30 days, during which time the workings, which were damaged to the extent of more than $50,000, will be repaired and then reopen with a force of between 700 and 1,000 men.

THE CHINESE EXCLUSION CONVENTION RESOLUTIONS

By Associated Press.

San Francisco, Nov. 22. The Chinese exclusion convention, composed of 3,000 delegates representing the state, county and city governments and industrial and civic organizations in all parts of California, today adopted the following resolutions:

"First, We demand the continuance of existing treaties with China and the re-enactment of the Geary exclusion law.

"Second, We recommend that the California delegates in congress act unitedly in the presentation of a bill to accomplish this purpose and use their utmost endeavors to secure its immediate enactment into a law.

As a supplemental report the committee on resolutions presented a statement which was adopted recognizing the menace to the industrial conditions on the coast of the rapidly increasing number of Japanese and other Asiatic immigrants, and asking that the matter be referred to the executive committee, with instructions to take such steps as may be necessary to secure all possible protection from the evils set forth.

The convention also adopted a memorial stating at length the reasons why the continued restriction of Chinese and other Asiatic immigration is demanded by the people of the Pacific coast.

DUTY OF UNITED STATES ON ISTHMUS OF PANAMA

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 22. The answer of the Colombian government to the representation of Consul General Gudger, to the effect that the government was unable to guarantee the integrity of the railway communication across the isthmus, was purposely developed in order to make perfectly plain the fact that the United States was perfectly justified in landing its forces at Colon. With this formal acknowledgement of the Colombian government of its inability to maintain communication, it becomes, it is said, not the privilege but the duty of the United States under the treaty of Granada, to guarantee that communication, even though the use of force is necessary. It is not intended to interfere between factions, conservative or liberal, unless a faction places itself in the position of obstructing the purpose of the United States to keep the Panama railroad free to traffic.

RUMMAGE SALE. Everyone is invited to attend the rummage sale that will be held next Friday, November 29, in the Alamo hotel sample rooms on Cucharas street. It will be under the auspices of a class of girls from the Christian Endeavor mission.

Rev. E. Evans Carrington leaves for Pueblo today to attend the annual meeting of the Associated Charities of that city. Mr. Carrington will deliver an address in the Pueblo opera house tomorrow afternoon in connection with the charity meeting. Dr. R. J. Lancaster of Colorado college will occupy Mr. Carrington's pulpit at the M. E. church, South tomorrow.

The state horticultural convention today adopted the following resolution with regard to bird life:

"Resolved, That recognizing the great good rendered to all rural pursuits by our useful birds and that in their destruction, all of these avocations receive a double injury, and further recognizing that many varieties of these birds winter in other states and are there needlessly slaughtered, we do hereby request our senators and representatives in our national congress to provide, if possible, such legislation as will adequately protect our birds."

Resolved, That the secretary of the state board of horticulture be hereby instructed to transmit certified copies of this resolution to each of the senators and representatives of our state on or before the opening of the next national congress."

The sessions of this convention have been well attended and the interest was greater than at any time during preceding meetings. After appointing the usual standing committees the session adjourned.

Governor Orman today appointed F. B. Schumacherm of this city a member of the board of control of the State industrial school for boys at Golden, vice H. E. Cole, resigned.

FOOD STOPPED IT

Good Food Worth More Than a Gold Mine.

To find a food that will put an absolute stop to running down is better than finding a gold mine. Many people when they begin to run down so from one food to another and find it impossible to find a food that will stop the progress of illness. Grape-Nuts Food is the most nourishing known and will set one right if that is possible.

The experience of a Louisiana lady will be interesting. Mrs. J. H. Graham, Wallace, La., writes: "I received a severe nervous shock some years ago and from my work gradually broke down. My food did not agree with me and I lost flesh rapidly. I changed from one kind of food to another but was unable to stop the loss of flesh and strength.

"I do not exaggerate when I say that I literally became in reality a living skeleton. My nights were sleepless and I was compelled to take opiates in various forms, after trying all sorts of different foods without success I finally got down to toasted bread with a little butter, and after a while this began to sour and I could not digest it. Then I took to toasted crackers and lived on them for several weeks but kept getting weaker.

"One day I was brought, knowledge of Grape-Nuts Food and it seemed to me from the description that it was just the sort of food I could digest. I began by eating a small portion just as it came from the package, and gradually increasing the amount each day, sometimes warming and adding a little cream.

"My improvement began at once for it afforded me the nourishment that I had been starving for. No more harassing pains and indigestion. For a month I ate nothing but Grape-Nuts and a little cream and sugar. Then I ate so much I could take on other kinds of food. I continued to gain flesh rapidly. Now I am in better health than I have been for years. I still stick to Grape-Nuts because I like the food and I know of its powerful nourishing properties. My physician says that my whole trouble was the lack of proper nourishment and that no other food that he knows of would have brought me out of the trouble as did Grape-Nuts."

CRIPPLE CREEK NEWS NOTES

Decree in the Midland Terminal-Independence Suit----Owen Sentences Suspended.

Cripple Creek Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Nov. 22.—A decree was handed down by Judge Seeds in the district court today in the matter of the injunction suit of the Midland Terminal R. R. Co. vs. Stratton's Independence, Ltd., and the Cripple Creek. The two cases were consolidated for hearing. In the decree the court finds that prior to September 15, 1901, the Midland Terminal company had its tracks laid over the Independence territory and to the ore bins of the company's property by license granted to it by the company; that Stratton's Independence, Ltd., wrongfully tore up these tracks and replaced them with tracks of its own. The court further finds that the Midland Terminal company is entitled to restore its tracks and maintain them. The injunctions granted October 15, 1901, against the C. [illegible] C. & C. D. R. R. Co. and Stratton's Independence, Ltd., restraining these companies from interfering with the Midland Terminal company are made permanent. The court holds that the Independence company has the right to put in crossover tracks if they do not interfere with the Midland Terminal tracks. The Midland Terminal company shall recover the costs.

There was an affecting scene in the district court this afternoon when Chauncey F. Owen and his son Fred B. Owen, who were convicted several days ago of breaking the banking laws of the state, were brought before Judge Seeds for sentence. Attorney L. C. Stimson, for the prisoners, made an eloquent plea for mercy, reciting the history of the unfortunate man and how the two men had lost everything in the failure of their bank at Gillett. The two ex-bankers were told to stand up, and when asked by the court if they had anything to say for themselves, both the old man and his crippled son were speechless. Judge Seeds sentenced each of them to serve one year in the state penitentiary at Canon City, but suspended sentence during good behavior. Mr. Owen and his son suffered an equal loss with the depositors of the bank when it failed, and the action of Judge Seeds in suspending sentence meets with the approval of the community.

A jury was secured today in the district court to try M. J. Riley upon the charge of burglary. It is alleged that Riley broke into Mrs. Smith's rooming house in the Hunt block, at Victor, and stole $16 in cash from one of the roomers.

A petition was filed today in the county court by Mrs. Louisa Savary, asking for a divorce from her husband, Joseph Savary. In her complaint the plaintiff states that they were married in Denver on January 15, 1881. She alleges non-support and desertion.

Among the mining deeds filed for record today were the following: L. T. Peek to T. R. Adams and J. T. Adams, a one-quarter interest in the Cecil, Sunshine, Sunshine No. 1, Daisy, Daisy No. 2, Beulice Nos. 1 and 2 lode claims, all on Squaw mountain; consideration $1. Oscar Lampman transferred to the same parties the same interest in the lodes. A. O. Martin and J. O. Boyle to J. M. Sherman, the S. M. & H. No. 4 lode, consideration 5,250 shares of Grouse Mountain G. M. stock, full paid and non-assessable.

A United States patent has been issued to E. Strois and R. Mignault, for the Hidden Treasure lode claim, survey No. 12919. The instrument was placed on record today.

Out-of-town arrivals at the National hotel today were: W. H. Beman, of Leadville; C. C. Hanlin, of Colorado Springs; F. W. Weakland, D. Forrest, C. T. West and F. W. THRIFT AND SKILL OF MUTUAL LIFE COMPANY

New York, Nov. 22.—Recent occurrences have called world-wide attention to the high character of the investments of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York. No institution's securities of any kind are ever considered by the company. An evidence of the thrift and skill of the management is the fact that the Mutual Life has either paid back to policy-holders or holds for their benefit nearly ninety millions ($90,000,000) dollars in excess of the entire sum ever received by the company from its members.

This is nearly four times as much as the twenty-eight other life companies reporting to the insurance commissioner of New York put together show. The income of the Mutual Life is more than two hundred thousand ($200,000) dollars every day.

CHAMBERLAIN'S HEALTH

DR. GARTRELL MAY PLEAD HIS OWN CASE

By Associated Press.

Butler, Mo., Nov. 22.—Arguments in the case of Dr. J. L. Gartrell, on trial for the murder of D. B. Donegan, a Colorado miner, began this afternoon. The evidence was finished this morning. It is said the accused prisoner will plead in his own behalf. All the witnesses for the defense attempted to prove that Gartrell was subject to fits.

NEWS NOTES FROM PUEBLO

Highberger Will Contest Fairfax's Election--Some Sensational Charges.

Pueblo Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Pueblo, Nov. 22.—In the county court this morning E. C. Highberger, Democratic candidate for county clerk, who on the face of the returns was defeated by Willis T. Fairfax by a plurality of 52, filed suit contesting the election of his Republican opponent and asking for a recount of the votes cast on November 5. The contest papers charge fraud and corruption in the election the fear that if the ballot boxes are allowed to remain longer in the custody of Mr. Fairfax they will be so tampered with that a recount would be useless. It is alleged that many illegal votes were cast and counted for the Republican ticket. The grounds of fraud alleged to be those of illegal voters is given. Highberger maintains that if the ballots were opened and counted as cast, they would show that the contestor had received an actual plurality over Mr. Fairfax of at least 52 votes. Despite the fact that in every precinct there were two Democratic judges to one Republican, the judges in certain precincts are charged with having been corrupted to defeat the intentions of illiterate voters and to so change the returns that the Republican candidate was given the majority. The court is asked to appoint a custodian to take the ballot boxes, etc., out of the hands of Mr. Fairfax and to have control until a recount is made, or if the court should not feel warranted in taking this step, it is requested to appoint two different men to watch the ballot boxes and papers night and day until a recount is completed. The contest document is quite voluminous. Regarding precinct No. 20, a sensational charge is made, it being alleged that one of the Democratic judges and one of the other judges were corruptly influenced to have the illiterate Democratic voters vote the Republican ticket when receiving assistance under the belief that they were voting the Democratic ticket. It is claimed that by this means the Democratic candidate was deprived of 50 votes. It is also charged that a large number of the envelopes containing the poll books and tally sheets were found open when the official count was made, but it is claimed by the Republicans that this was done by F. M. Sommers, the Democratic justice of the peace, who assisted in the count. Various other semi-sensational charges are made, and a long list of names of alleged illegal voters is given and numerous specific allegations of fraud made.

The coal situation in Pueblo is becoming more and more serious and a complete famine now threatens. The coal men state that their bins are absolutely empty, and that they are unable to secure any coal to fill them. Business houses are actually becoming handicapped more or less by the fuel shortage, particularly wholesale houses and manufacturing establishments. Superintendent Burns of the Rio Grande stated today that his road is driving all freight without much trouble, but the Santa Fe is undoubtedly handicapped a great deal on account of their new and inexperienced switchmen.

The members of the various missionary societies of the city held a very largely attended all day meeting at the First Baptist church today. A very interesting program was carried out.

Ralph Davis of Beulah has sold his interest in the famous lost mine which was recently found, to E. M. Johnson of Pueblo. In investigation of the mine shows that when "Nigger" Davis left it 13 years ago a fugitive from justice, he must have attempted to bury the mine by putting in a large charge of dynamite. It will be necessary to tunnel into the old shaft from below.

Treseus, the famous trotting horse, was taken west tonight by Mr. Ketcham, his owner. His next appearance is at Sacramento, Cal.

COLORADO SPRINGS DOGS AT THE DENVER SHOW

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Nov. 22. The entries of Mrs. F. O. Wood and Mrs. William Hutchinson of Colorado Springs took the first prizes in their respective classes at the first annual dog show of the Colorado Kennel club, now being conducted in the Coliseum building in this city. Each of the ladies had three dogs entered and every dog carried off a ribbon. Mrs. Wood had entered Daintywood and Spottiswood and puppies in the Blenheim spaniel class, and Nassie W., as a novice in the same class.

Mrs. Hutchinson had entered Yankee Sam and Rustic Queen in the novice class, Yankee Sam and she also had Yankee Sam, Rustic Queen and Clayton Chieftain entered in the open of the same class. She won ribbons on all of her entries.

The Colorado Springs dogs are attracting especial attention from the crowds that are attending and the prizes won today will doubtless induce others to enter at the show next year. Today's attraction proved a drawing card, as the hall was filled from early morning until late tonight. The show promises an entire success. Tomorrow is the last day and preparations are being made for a crowd.

GOLDFIELD

Special to the Gazette.

Goldfield, Nov. 22. Allen Combs, ex-constable of Goldfield, has been sentenced to serve two years at the United States prison at Leavenworth, Kas., for misconduct as a United States marshal in this city last July. Alleging that he was a United States marshal with a warrant, he arrested Allen E. Boyce, a local assayer, upon the charge of buying stolen ore. Later Boyce was released upon payment of $30 to Combs. The news was received here today that Combs had been found guilty by a jury in the United States court, and that sentence had been passed upon him by Judge Hallett.

Attorney J. E. Little and wife, will move to Colorado Springs about December 1, where Mr. Little will enter into partnership with Attorney McKesson. Mr. Little is a strong adherent to the Republican party, and his many friends in the district regret to see him leave Teller county. He has resided here since May, 1896.

Dr. Van Norman has gone to Denver for a few days' stay.

The ladies of the Methodist church gave a very enjoyable entertainment at the church last evening. Supper was served. The proceeds will go into the school fund.

Father Cantwell of Denver, who has been conducting a very successful mission in the Catholic church, will begin on Monday for other points in the state. The mission will close on Sunday morning with high mass.

NEWS NOTES FROM VICTOR

Victor Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Victor, Nov. 22.—In a signed statement the employes of the Pike's Peak Power company think they are not antagonistic to organized labor, but that they refuse to take sides in a fight between corporation, meaning the Pike's Peak Power company and the Gold Belt Consolidated Electric company, or between communities, meaning the cities of Victor and Cripple Creek. The Pike's Peak Power company has been declared unfair to organized labor. It is alleged by employes of the company, to be the result of differences between the electrical workers residing in Victor and those residing in Cripple Creek. Union brick-layers employed on the company's plant have been called off by the Trades assembly.

Bert Anderson, the meat cutter employed at the K. C. market on North Third street, lost two fingers on his right hand this afternoon while feeding meat into a raspage grinder. The doctors in attendance are trying to graft one of the fingers to the hand.

Carl McAdams, a fireman at the Central Pike station had his foot badly crushed at 6 o'clock this evening. One of the fire horses jumped upon the foot breaking the bones in two toes. McAdams will be laid up for some time.

The Victor football team will go to Cripple Creek on Sunday and play a match game with the Cripple Creek team. The local boys have been practicing hard for the game and expect to wipe out the previous defeats. The game will be called at Union park at 2:30 o'clock and a large crowd of visitors will accompany the locals to cheer them on to victory.

The new ice skating rink at the corner of Victor avenue and Fourth street was practically completed today. The enclosure was flooded with water this afternoon, under the direction of the city water commissioner. [illegible] Jesse expects to open the rink next Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McDonald and son of Colorado Springs, are spending a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bailey, on Bell street.

J. M. Frederick Scott of Boston, is the guest of George Cowerman.

MEMORIAL FUND IS STILL GROWING

The McKinley memorial fund in this city now amounts to about $50 and Postmaster Morgan states that the lists will be held open for all who wish to subscribe until the national committee says that it has enough to carry the project through, and in view of another appeal from the committee, Mr. Morgan hopes that all those who have not so far subscribed will do so as soon and in as large amounts as possible. The list is in the postoffice.

BRIEF CITY ITEMS

EAGLES SOCIAL. The local order of Eagles, Aerie No. 133, will hold a social at its next meeting.

REALTY DEALS.—The following real estate transactions have been completed in the last few days through the agency of H. C. Kinsman: Lots 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14, in block 232, in Bott's addition, sold by Ella Kinsman to W. B. Root, house and lot on Monroe street from W. B. Root to O. W. Levan, consideration, $1,200. Mr. Levan will occupy the new house as his own residence.

BANK CLOSED. As a mark of respect for Mr. Burwell, whose father was buried yesterday afternoon in Newton, Kas., the State bank was closed yesterday.

A. O. P. At the regular meeting of the American Order of Protection, held in the Waycott building on Thursday evening, by five members were initiated, and afterwards an enjoyable musical program was rendered and refreshments were served. Commander J. P. Bates was then presented with a beautiful gold pin as a token of the lodge's appreciation of his services.

PERSONAL MENTION

Justice Bates was suffering from the grip yesterday, but was not confined to the house.

W. G. Tiger is building a four-room modern cottage on Colorado avenue in Arensdale.

J. M. Stewart is erecting a cottage in Arensdale.

Mrs. S. Mitchell of Denver is in the city on business. Mrs. Mitchell was formerly a resident of Colorado City.

Miss Lucy P. Smith has removed to the Springs to reside.

Frank McGinty has gone to Weston, Colo., to engage in business.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. White have gone to Green Mountain Falls.

Olof and George Peterson have gone to Green Mountain Falls for the winter.

POLICE HAVE A CASE OF THE GRIP

Some unknown person with a hidden purpose left a grip in care of one of the prominent storekeepers at his place of business in this city about a week ago.

Yesterday this was given into the hands of the police and opened by Detective Dayton. It was found to contain a new pair of shoes and numerous articles of feminine wearing apparel, together with a letter addressed to Mrs. Mary Johnson, Colorado Springs. The letter was from a relative in Grand Junction. The police are trying to solve the mystery, but as no one at the place where the grip was left knows anything more than that the grip was left there, there is very little for the detective to work on, as Mrs. Johnson is not known to the police.

MRS. GUTHRIE WAS THERE ON TIME

Mrs. Guthrie, the woman who gave bond for her appearance in police court yesterday came up before Judge Boatright at the proper time and was fined for contempt and for obstructing the street.

The defendant took her time about reaching the court on Thursday and was consequently given a fine for non-compliance with the order of the court. The charge of obstruction was then taken up and in view of the complaints which had been entered on account of the building which the woman allowed to remain as an obstruction to general traffic on West Cimarron street a fine of $50 and costs was imposed and was suspended for 10 days in order to allow Mrs. Guthrie time to remove the building.

DEATH OF MOTHER OF DR. CHRISTOPHER

Mrs. Mary Ann Christopher, relict of the late Major Thomas Christopher, died November 21, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. I. Elliott, of Routt county, Colorado, at the advanced age of 92 years, six months.

Mrs. Christopher was born in Madison county, Kentucky, in 1809.

She was one of the guests at the grand ball given in honor of General Lafayette at Lexington, Ky., in 1825.

She was one of the first of her sex to embrace the teachings of that great expounder of gospel truths, Alexander Campbell, of Bethany, West Virginia.

She was of a bright and cheery temperament and lived the life of a true Christian, with love for all and malice toward none.

She leaves three children to mourn her loss, Mrs. A. C. Craig of Denver, Colo., Mrs. N. I. Elliott of Routt county, Colo., and Dr. D. I. Christopher of Colorado Springs.

The remains will be taken to Kansas City where the interment will be made by the side of her husband and father.

AMUSEMENTS

IN OLD KENTUCKY TONIGHT.

"In Old Kentucky," which is announced for presentation at the Opera house this evening, will be as welcome as the flowers in May. It may truthfully be called a classic. It is a wholesome, healthy type of play. It still has that delicious flavor of Kentucky chivalry spiced with pretty sentiment and the rollicking fun of the little darkies. There is the extreme romanticism of the melodramatic school with its love, its pathos and its villainy. Those who have seen it once go again. It is indeed the most diverting play of the day and its continued success for nine years is not to be wondered at, when one considers the variety of incidents with which it abounds. There is no play on the boards today more popular with the masses of theater-goers than "In Old Kentucky"—no play that is looked forward to with keener anticipation. The company this season is almost identically the same that has been presenting the piece since its original production, and the company and production are kept up to a high standard by Manager Jacob Litt. The scenery for this season's tour is entirely new, but the original pickaninny brass band is retained and all the old familiar features of this successful attraction will be in evidence again this year.

A FEMALE DRUMMER.

"The best comedy of the season" is the universal verdict of the press in commenting on the production of "A Female Drummer," the latest success from the pen of Charles E. Blaney. This splendid comedy which will be presented at the Opera house Monday evening well deserves the praise bestowed upon it, as the author has spared neither time nor expense in his desire to make it a leader in the comedy world, and his efforts have been rewarded beyond his most sanguine hopes. The charming actress, Miss Johnstone Bennett, now in the leading role, is strikingly fitted for the part of Rosa Bargain, a female drummer. She causes a commotion in the large department store of Smooth & Silk in her endeavors to force upon the unwilling her large stock of feminine apparel. Miss Johnstone Bennett is ably assisted by such clever artists as Tony Williams, Harry Ladell, Albert Tavernier, Mart Reagan, Payson Graham and Charlotte Scott. The minor parts are in the hands of very competent people, the large company resulting 40 artists. The scenery is handsome and is especially constructed for "A Female Drummer." The comedy is divided into three acts, presenting the business offices of Smooth & Silk, the interior of the firm's large department store, and the tropical gardens of a well-known New York hotel, with the sales ladies' ball in progress. The staging and costuming are magnificent and the production is all that could be desired.

The Waterman Fountain Pen

We have always carried in stock a line of Fountain Pens but never before have we carried so complete a stock as we have now for the Holiday season. We have them at $2.00, $2.50, $3.50, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $7.50 and $10.00 each. What could be more acceptable for a Christmas present than a fully guaranteed Waterman Pen as it can be exchanged at any time by any dealer in any city in the United States.

We are confident that fully one half of those who do not use a fountain pen today have never tried a "Waterman."

There is no one who has ever fully realized the benefit of a reliable fountain pen who will admit that he could afford to get along without one.

PEST HOUSE

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS WILL NOT BUILD ONE.

Agreement Between City and County Has Been Called Off and Each Will Attend to Its Own Cases.

There will not be a joint county and city pest house. The county will care for its own cases of contagious diseases; the city must care for its cases. The proposition by which the county was to care for all patients and prorate the charges with the city on the basis of the number of cases has been turned down by the commissioners. This action is final. It was taken yesterday afternoon.

The commissioners and the city council have been discussing the pest house problem for many weeks. At the start it was proposed to build a joint pest house. Then the county and city decided to build separate pest houses. Then the county and city found it would be rather costly to build separate pest houses, so the two got together again and an agreement was drawn up which seemed to be acceptable to both parties. This agreement provided that the county should build the pest house on property deeded to the county by the city and that the county should handle all cases and divide the expense proportionately with the city. This agreement, it was supposed, would be signed today, but yesterday the county commissioners decided that they had no funds with which to build a pest house and called off the joint arrangement.

The county proposes to fix up a temporary pest house near the county hospital and attend to its own cases there. The commissioners will spend about $300 in improvements upon a building they have out there and will make that serve as a pest house.

The city will probably build a pest house of its own, but this will probably not be decided until December 2, when the council meets.

BEESON-WADHAMS

The marriage of Ernest B. Beeson of this city, and Miss Mary H. Wadhams of Torrington, Conn., took place at the home of the bride a few days ago. The marriage was a complete surprise to the many friends of Mr. Beeson.

He went east a short time ago, saying he would visit his old friends in Ohio. Before going, however, he purchased a residence in the northern part of the city. Miss Wadhams is quite well known in this city as she has visited friends here quite frequently. Mr. Beeson is a member of the drug firm of Korsmeyer & Beeson. Mr. and Mrs. Beeson will reside here after their honeymoon.

DAYTON SOLVES THE TRUNK MYSTERY

The mystery of a trunk which was lost in this city the latter part of September has been solved by the location of the trunk in Pueblo by Detective Dayton.

Last summer Miss Emery, the daughter of Mrs. C. F. Emery of Kansas City, was visiting in Colorado Springs and on September 24 started for home. A trunk was filled with wearing apparel and other valuables to the estimated amount of $300, and an expressman was given an order to remove the trunk from the young lady's stopping place on North Nevada avenue to the Denver & Rio Grande depot. The trunk did not arrive at the depot before the departure of the train for the east and orders were left for the trunk to be sent on a later train to its proper destination.

For a week after her arrival in Kansas City the young lady looked anxiously for the trunk but nothing was seen or heard of it and a communication was sent to the police department of this city explaining the situation. Detective George Dayton immediately went to work on the case. It was suspected that possibly the expressman had failed to deliver the trunk to the railroad men and, as it was impossible to find the particular expressman who had taken charge of the trunk in the first instance, the chances for its recovery seemed slender.

It was finally learned, however, that by some error the baggagemaster, the trunk had been checked to Pueblo and it was found there by the detective. Through the courtesy of the Rio Grande railroad it was immediately forwarded to its destination free of charge.

Costly Suit Over Horse That Strayed

In the county court yesterday the case of Charles Merritt vs. Samuel Bishop was on trial. It is a replevin case over a horse which strayed away some time in March of last year and which probably $30, and at the most $50, would buy the horse, the suit has caused an witness fees alone very nearly $200. These with the other costs of the trial will fall a heavy burden on one of the parties to the action and the case has now come to the point where it is not only a question of who owns the horse but also a question of who pays the fiddler.

The case will probably be concluded today. Testimony was all in last night when court adjourned and the arguments will be made this morning. W. M. Swift and W. N. Rob represent Merritt and H. M. Chambers is attorney for Bishop.

The court room was filled with witnesses. There were some 40 of them and most of them came in from the eastern boundaries of the county. At the conclusion of court last night there were so many of them to claim witness fees that they had to form in line and take their turn.

It is one of the biggest cases, from the standpoint of witnesses, ever heard in the county court.

The replevin case of Goldsmith vs. Miller was finished and a verdict was returned for the plaintiff. It was alleged that in serving an attachment on K. Goldsmith, the property of Sarah Goldsmith was seized when Simon Goldsmith was the person against whom the attachment issued.

In the district court F. E. Robinson filed a money demand suit against the Kentucky Belle Gold Mining company to recover $1,885, which plaintiff avers he advanced for the defendant company in sums varying from $5 to $580.

J. H. Griffith vs. Mary L. Chase is the title of a suit filed in the district court to quiet title. The property in question is lot 12, block 44, Hayden Placer addition to Cripple Creek.

In Justice McClelland's court yesterday the case of the people vs. Clara Charmeweless and E. W. Titus, who are charged with adultery, came up for trial. Mrs. Charmeweless' case was continued for 10 days because, it was said, she was too ill to attend trial. Titus was bound over to the district court under $500 bonds.

Enjoyable Lecture on Japanese Art

Ernest Fenollosa, the distinguished student of and authority on Japanese art, delivered a very enjoyable lecture last evening at Perkins Fine Arts hall to an audience which filled perhaps half the auditorium but which made up in appreciation what was lacking in numbers. Mr. Fenollosa used to illustrate his lecture, stereopticon pictures, the slides being made from photographs and colored by Japanese artists.

The lecturer proved himself to be thoroughly immersed in his subject, speaking during the entire evening in an easy conversational manner, and making his point at all times clear. He followed up the different periods of Japanese progress in art and explained the pictures very entertainingly. One of the most interesting of the points he emphasized was the harmony which exists between the Japanese landscape and the native architecture. To elucidate this he had some pictures of rare beauty, representing the beautiful old roads and temples which seemed fairly to belong to the hillsides, so in keeping were they, in outline and color, with the quiet and rugged charm of the landscape. His pictures showing the effectiveness of Japanese landscape gardening were also of great beauty, and many of them elicited applause from the audience.

In his talk, Mr. Fenollosa showed himself to be a scholar of deep learning in the field of Japanese art and of European art as well, drawing comparisons and quoting authority with great ease; and speaking at times of very abstruse principles so easily as to make his meaning entirely lucid. Undoubtedly a much larger audience will greet him next Tuesday night when he follows up his subject with further comparisons with European art, for anything which is at once so scholarly and entertaining as this cannot help but attract attention as news of it spreads.

Congregationalists Dined at Alamo

Peace, plenty and prosperity was the shibboleth of the banquet held last night at the Alamo. It was the biennial social gathering of the members of the First Congregational church, and the enthusiasm and good feeling was so contagious that it was informally decided to hold the banquets at least once a year, instead of biennially as hitherto. Everyone was in the very best humor, and all the speakers were inspired to tell their very best stories, with an infectious effect on minds, until the entire assembly reflected one huge composite smile of good-humored enjoyment.

For days and days past the women of the congregation have been at work cooking the daintiest viands, and concocting cakes and making jellies that convinced one that the present generation of women with all their talk of culture are not a whit behind their mothers in cooking. All these things were taken in cart-loads to the Alamo yesterday and the day before, and helped to make a holiday for the members of the church. The tables were decorated in a fashion to suggest the strenuous good old New England days of the forefathers of the church. There were carrot candle-holders, turnip candle-holders, huge pumpkins hollowed out to hold the fruits of the season, bright red apples and pears, with here and there a flower to add a bit of brightness. The tables, as the crowd entered the improvised dining room of the Alamo looked as pretty as any Thanksgiving table could look. The young ladies of the church and a number of pretty college girls, all of them gowned in white, acted the part of waitresses as deftly as they were charming. There was no lack of help nor of hospitality. The latter flowed from the good smiles of the reception committee, was reinforced by their fine old-fashioned hand-clasps, and was further materialized by the plenteous appearance of the tables.

The reception committee consisted of Dr. and Mrs. James B. Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Eldredge and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Tucker. The ladies committee who had the banquet in charge was Mrs. George Brink, Mrs. Clay White, Mrs. Robert Kerr, Mrs. J. W. Scott, Mrs. J. A. Morrison, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Shepard, Mrs. Gilfillan and Mrs. Batchbaugh. Mrs. Brink supervised the banquet from the beginning. The men's committee consisted of Mr. Fred S. Tucker, Mr. George Clark, Mr. Irwin Livermore. Assisting at the tables were Misses Grace Wallace, Carey, Brigham, Guzman, McAllister, McKinnie and Alice McKinnie.

There were about 200 people at the banquet, and had the committee been able to secure a larger room, more people would have attended. After the banquet a very enjoyable program of music and speeches was rendered. All of the toasts were in a humorous vein, not the least witty of which were Dr. Gregg's clever introductions of the different speakers. The quartet that sang at the intervals of the talks was composed of Mr. Skinner, Miss Crissey, Mr. R. W. Hemenway and Mrs. Garrison.

The program rendered was as follows:

MINING INTERESTS ENLARGED AND SOLIDIFIED.

THE ADVICE frequently given to Colorado Springs mining men in these columns to branch out and extend our interests in larger fields appears to have commended itself to our local promoters and capitalists. There has been a continuous and ever-increasing expansion of our field of interest. This is especially true of Colorado and at the present time Colorado Springs is well represented in all the newer districts of the state, while many of the older camps are experiencing the benefits of fresh capital and more modern methods.

Colorado Springs has gained a most enviable reputation as the home of men of means who are not afraid to take chances and who have a habit of coming out right in the end with what they undertake.

But the field of our mining enterprises is not limited to Colorado. It extends from Alaska to Mexico and from Beaumont to the Pacific Coast.

It may be questioned whether any speculative excitement really adds permanently to the prosperity of any community. Colorado Springs has undoubtedly profited by the interest in Cripple Creek stocks, but the permanent benefit gained is to be measured by the solid values and not by the speculative fever that may have existed at any particular time.

The Gazette therefore notes with special satisfaction that the mining interests of this city were never before upon such a firm and solid basis as they are at the present time. To have limited our attention strictly to Teller county would have been a fatal policy and the inevitable consequence would have been in the long run, disastrous. By the widening of our interests the city is in a most satisfactory condition and besides enjoying in a large measure the increasing returns from wise investments it is now in a position where new developments are pretty sure to add to the revenues of some of its enterprising and far-seeing citizens.

The recent dullness in the local market, which seems now drawing to a close, is not a sign of decadence but of life. It is a transition period of repose through which our market must pass in its course towards a greater activity and a more extended business. The mining business of Colorado Springs is now too well established and too widely extended to be overthrown, and for many years to come it will remain one of the chief of the city's titles to wealth and fame.

AN ENCOURAGING OPINION.

IN THE very interesting interview published in yesterday morning's Gazette, Senator Scott gave some information in regard to coming events at Washington that will be very welcome to western people.

There is one thing that the next congress is going to do, and that is in the matter of providing for irrigation of the western lands, so-called "bad-lands." I was very glad that the river and harbor bill was defeated, because it did not provide for this measure. Roosevelt is very friendly disposed toward the west, and there has probably been no president who has been more familiar with the needs of this section than Roosevelt. The entire area of semi-arid land could be reclaimed and congress alone can do it. After a while the land would become self-supporting that is, the sale of the land could form a fund with which to reclaim other lands in other parts of the country. All the western dry land should be reclaimed and it could be done by piecemeal within a few years. There is not a foot of level land in this state that will not become productive when irrigated. There should be a great system of dams and reservoirs supported by the national government, and it is my conviction that the next congress will do something toward this end.

Senator Scott is undoubtedly better informed in regard to western conditions and needs than many other senators and representatives, and so is the president. There is yet a great deal to be done in the education of eastern people and eastern congressmen upon this subject, but such men as Senator Scott and the president can be of immense benefit to us along this line and their influence will be of the very highest value to us.

ANOTHER IRISH COMPLICATION.

A FRESH disturbance is promised in parliament as a result of the election of Colonel Arthur Lynch of Galway. The newly elected M. P. gained his title in the Boer army where he fought actively against the government in which he now proposes to participate, and there is not the least evidence that he has changed his opinions or is in any way sorry for his acts. That he has the approval of his constituents, however, is evident from that fact that he received 1,217 votes as against 473 for his competitor.

It is difficult to see how the British government can avoid the challenge thus given to it. Whatever may be thought of the merits of his treason, Colonel Lynch is certainly a traitor and it would be limited and partial suicide to admit him to parliament as a member in good standing. Probably he does not expect this himself and his election is doubtless intended chiefly to remind the world at large and the British in particular that there are Irish irreconcilables who are always ready to ally themselves with a foreign foe against England and rejoice at the opportunity.

A St. Louis astrologer is claiming considerable attention because he predicted the assassination of President McKinley. But how about the 1001 astrologers who predicted something else?

THE McKINLEY MEMORIAL.

IT IS IN response to the evident desire of many persons in Colorado Springs that the McKinley memorial lists have been kept open past the time originally fixed for their closing, and in spite of the fact that no serious effort has been made to secure contributions, the total has been steadily growing until it closely approaches the amount of $1,000, which was originally fixed as the proper limit of the fund. The subscription lists will be left open until this evening, after which they will be closed and the amount subscribed, whatever it may be, will be forwarded to the general president of the memorial fund.

OIL AT PAGOSA SPRINGS.

FOR SOME time past Archuleta county, in the south central part of the state, has been looked upon as one of the most promising fields for oil discovery in Colorado. The Gazette has contained several articles of greater or less length upon the subject and it has been frequently referred to in our news columns.

It is therefore with no surprise that our readers will receive the report of the opening of a "gusher" near Pagosa Springs, and the hope will be general that the announcement is not premature.

There is no good reason why oil should not be found at many widely separated points in this state, and present indications are hidden so favorable that it may be counted on with certainty as one of the great future industries.

A NECESSARY CHANGE.

THERE is an evident necessity for changing the time of the fiscal year in Colorado Springs. At the present time the year begins on the 1st of March, according to the city's bookkeeping, and the result of this way of reckoning time is that when the levy is made, in November, it is necessary to raise taxes to pay expenses that have already been incurred, and to provide money that has already been spent. The evils of such a system are apparent, and among other things it is quite impossible to enforce strict economy when the plea can truthfully be made that questionable expenditures have already been made and the money for them must be forthcoming.

The state law permits the city council to fix the time of the fiscal year to suit itself, and there can be no difficulty upon this point. The year should begin on the 1st of January, and the necessary appropriations should be made before this time.

A GENEROUS GIFT.

YESTERDAY the Y. M. C. A. building fund was enlarged by the contribution of $1,000 from a gentleman in New York who is interested in this city, and who appreciates the benefit to be derived from an active and well-equipped Young Men's Christian association.

It is an interesting condition of Mr. Peabody's gift that this $1,000 is to be the last thousand of the necessary amount. Colorado Springs people will have to contribute the other funds necessary before this gift becomes available.

There is no doubt that the people of Colorado Springs will accept the challenge thus given to them, and that a few days more of the kind of work that is now being done will result in getting together the amount necessary before the work of building can be resumed.

THE TAX PROPOSITION.

IT IS RIGHT and it is proper that funds should be furnished in sufficient quantities to pay the proper running expenses of the state government. And it is also right and also proper that El Paso county should contribute a fair share of these taxes.

But it is not right nor proper that public money should be squandered by the legislature, and it is not right nor proper that El Paso county should be called on to pay more than her just proportion of such taxes.

The Chinese exclusion act was passed to meet a real danger and to remedy an existing fact. It is said now that Japanese immigration threatens to become a worse evil than that of the Chinese. If that is so the restriction laws should be amended and added to in such a way as to meet present conditions and prevent future evils. The people of the west should resolutely oppose the introduction in large numbers of an inferior race.

There ought to be a rigid investigation of the disaster at Telluride. Lives should not be sacrificed in this wholesale fashion if there is any way to prevent it, and when such accidents do happen it is the business of the state and county authorities to look into them very carefully with the purpose of preventing similar happenings in the future, and also of punishing the guilty, if anyone has been guilty of neglect or carelessness.

The translation of the Bible is a queer thing to riot about, and we have not heard of any serious public disturbance in Chicago on account of the publication of the sacred volumes in "modern" English. But it appears that in Athens they are more sensitive. Possibly the people there have been taking to heart Paul's censure upon them for always desiring some new thing and have resolved to hold fast to the old Bible, whether they understand it or not.

The man who is going to make gold as common as gravel has reappeared, this time in Denver, and has induced some very respectable persons to lend their names to his schemes. The secrets of chemistry are by no means exhausted, but Cripple Creek stockholders are not taking big chances in holding onto their shares.

The Yukon conspiracy appears to have some basis of fact. No one outside of a parcel of scatter-brains and visionaries would have planned such an enterprise, but almost anything would come natural to a man who had put in two or three arctic winters.

The total vote in Ohio was 840,147, but the vote on governor was 827,586. The result of a big guessing contest at Kansas City depends upon which one of these two numbers will be selected in determining the result.

A few days ago we were informed that Bulgaria would be held responsible for the work of the brigands. But so far that doesn't seem to worry either Bulgaria or the brigands.

STATE POLITICAL PRESS COMMENTS

New Campaign Begun.

While a good many journals went to make up the victory of the Republican party this year, yet it does not necessarily follow that the Republicans cannot hold a large per cent of the vote given to their ticket. Very much will depend upon the men we this year elected to fill the county offices. They can win votes or they can lose those already gained. The feeling against boodle misrule in the state is even stronger than it is in this county; dozens of men are holding down positions who are wholly incompetent and others are on the pay roll who are not needed in the least. Good men all over the state believe that the only way to place the business of the state upon a safe basis is to have a thorough house-cleaning time. Our platform must demand economy and our ticket must be made up of men whose names will mean just what the platform demands. The campaign will begin at once and continue until the votes are counted next fall; the voters want to know everything about the state of affairs at Denver and there will be an interest taken in the primaries and conventions of the Republican party as never shown before. The state outside of Denver will insist upon making up the ticket and the issues and then it will be up to us to see that it is nominated. If this is done and well-done Colorado will have taken a stand which will redound to her glory, not only within her own borders, but in the nation. The News knows that Mesa county stands ready to do her full share towards bringing about this very desirable condition of affairs.—(Grand Junction News.

The Future of the Party.

The successor of the Republican party in most of the counties of the state this year and its marked failure in the largest county in the state, is calling forth much comment and some suggestions for the campaign of next year which we elect a full corps of officers, a senator, three congressmen, a legislator and a few county officers. It seems to be the unanimous opinion that the Republicans lost Arapahoe county because the leadership of that county was not approved by the Republicans of that county. As for the future the general opinion is that the interests of the party will be best conserved by encouraging a large number of candidates to enter the field, and that a free selection should be made in open convention when every delegate will have a chance to register his choice.

The Colorado Springs Gazette is one of the strongest advocates of this mode of procedure and in a recent issue expresses its views in part as follows:

While we do not believe that it would be wise to select some of the names proposed by the Gazette and others are not available, still we agree that the proposed plan is a good one and every Republican is at liberty and doubtless can suggest other persons who would make excellent candidates for the several offices. We also believe that consideration of candidates should be commenced at an early date. It is seldom that a wise selection can be made upon the spur of the moment. The Republicans of Weld county were never more harmonious nor more generally interested in their ticket than during the recent campaign. We believe one reason was that they felt that they had had an equal show in selecting the ticket and felt a personal responsibility for its election. The result is shown by the election returns. If a few more had felt responsibility and more duty to their party the results would have been given better. Let every Republican interest himself in the success of the party next year and victory is assured.—(Greeley Sun.

Impure Politics.

(Loveland Reporter.)

No doubt it was the same feeling of love for decent politics which made people happy to think Seth Low, of New York city, had triumphed over Tammany that made them equally satisfied with the Republican defeat in Denver.

Denver's politics are rotten and have been for years. Both parties have tried all plans of purification except the proper one; and both parties are almost strangers to principle. But of the two parties last week the Democrats were the more decent and the better element of the Republicans voted the Democratic ticket.

The rebuke given by this overwhelming defeat should be taken to heart by the Republicans and care taken to relegate unprincipled Republican leaders to some shady bourne whence they will not return. There are those in leadership whose tactics partake too much of the character of E. O. Wolcott—and decent people have to hold one hand over their nose and the other on their watch when associating with such ilk.

The Reporter admires Republicanism but when mixed with boggism and crossed with bossism one could not recognize the original blood if it came with a visiting card in each hand and a placard on its breast. We hope the Republicans have tumbled to the conditions—and that hereafter only clean people will be interested in campaigns.

There are hints of a reorganization of the Republican party in Arapahoe county. The result in that county indicates that some action is needed if the party anticipates holding the state in 1902. Senator Wolcott has arrived, Chairman Ford is formulating some new rules for campaign management, and the Union club is after Archie Stevenson's scalp. Party policy in the state has not been altogether satisfactory to the rank and file for some time. The Republican party of the state cannot be built up on corruption or gang-power, and the sooner this idea is instilled into the minds of those who are seeking a better organization, the earlier will the party get into good working order. The next thing to be eliminated should be the idea of bossism, federal or otherwise, and it should be done effectually. With the proper management and a decent recognition of the outlying counties there is no good reason why the state should not go Republican in 1902, but unless there is an overhauling of methods, the result may be open for speculation. The objectionable portions of party policy should be cut out now if the party is to come up solid next fall. To wait until then to make the needed changes may be a fatal error.—(San Juan Prospector.

The Colorado Springs Gazette, under the management of I. N. Stevens, has developed into one of the very best newspapers in the state. Its editor has recently set himself aright before the people by candidly stating that he is not a candidate for any office, and will not be.—(San Juan Prospector.

Our Republican friends seem to be having a hot time in Denver in trying to organize as they call it, the Republican party of the state with new leaders at the head and in control of the organization. The particular purpose seems to be to get rid of the federal and other office-holding manipulators, but it is doubtful if the attempt will be successful. It is pretty hard for the Republican party to get along without the Stevensons, Wolcotts and Baileys.—(Canon City Clipper.

COUNTY RAISES THE SCHOOL LEVY

Mandamus Suit Brought by Colorado City School Board Demands a Two Mill Levy and Asks That Two of the Board Be Fined.

The county commissioners have raised the levy for the general school fund from 1 mill to 2 mills. This action was brought about by mandamus proceedings instituted against the board yesterday by the directors of school district No. 1 of Colorado City.

The commissioners say they are satisfied that the school board has the law on its side and, therefore, will comply with the order before it is enforced.

The mandamus suit was filed in the district court yesterday and a writ was issued returnable December 2. While the three members of the board are made respondents to the suit, the complaint is specifically against Commissioners James Doran and Sebastian Greenway. It is alleged that they, constituting a majority of the board, have refused to levy the tax for school purposes as provided for by statute, and the school board prays that the board be compelled to levy a tax of at least two mills for school purposes and also that Messrs. Greenway and Doran be compelled to pay the sum of $100 each to the general school fund, for failure to comply with the law.

Commissioner W. H. Fairall is understood to have been willing to levy the two mill tax all the time and for that reason he is not made a specific party to the suit.

The commissioners got legal advice yesterday afternoon and decided not to fight the case. The statutes seem to provide that a tax of between two and five mills shall be levied for general school purposes. A fine of $100 is specified for non-compliance with this statute and it is in accordance with this statute that the suit and the prayer for the fine of $100 each is filed against Messrs. Doran and Greenway.

The tax levy for El Paso county has thus been revised and changed. The action taken yesterday increases the levy by 1.1 mills. Upon the bottom of the resolution which was passed in this connection yesterday was the notation "final," which is taken to mean that the levy will not again be changed.

The mandamus proceedings brought by the Colorado City school board, mention of which is made elsewhere, caused an increase of one mill in the levy for general school purposes. The commissioners then decided that as the school boards and the city council were not willing to reduce their levies they did not feel called upon to slint the county. Accordingly they went over the list again and carefully figured out the amount of money necessary to run each department properly next year and at the close raised the levy for roads and bridge purposes one-tenth of a mill. This was the only change made. The levy finally adopted yesterday, which the commissioners say will not be changed, is as follows:

For Ordinary County Revenue	2.5 mills
For Support of Poor	.3 mills
For Roads and Bridges	.5 mills
For Contingent Fund	.2 mills
For Court House	2.0 mills
Total for County Purposes	5.5 mills
For General School Fund	2.0 mills
Grand Total	7.5 mills

The commissioners said yesterday that they had cut down their levy to the smallest possible figure before either the school board or city council had made their levies, and had done this in order to meet the demand for a general reduction in taxes. They said they wanted to set a good example to the city council and school board but in view of the fact that neither of those bodies showed and inclination to reduce its levy the commissioners felt that the reduction should not be made by the county alone.

"The city council and the school boards wanted the taxes reduced at the county's expense," said Commissioner Greenway, and this seems to be the reason for the revision of the county levy. In justification of the increase in the levy for roads and bridges, the commissioners state that they had reduced this below what was actually needed.

George Foster Peabody Gives Y. M. C. A. $1000

Two good subscriptions have just been added to the Y. M. C. A. building fund, one of $1,000 from George Foster Peabody, of New York city and one of $50 from Prof. M. C. Glle of Colorado college.

Jay Fisher, secretary of the Colorado Springs company, has received a communication from Mr. Peabody stating that he was so much pleased by the prospectus of the new Young Men's Christian association building for this city that it was his desire to contribute to its erection and he offered to give $1000 to the fund with the single proviso that his $1,000 shall be the last $1,000 of the sum necessary to be raised.

Mr. Peabody's interest in the work was aroused by the prospectus of the association building which was sent him by Gen. William J. Palmer. The subscription was so unexpected and so bountiful that the managers of the association are much elated and are confident that this example of pure philanthropy will be imitated by others who are in a position to give largely to such a project.

The benefactor is well known in this city and has always been interested and identified with every forward step that Colorado Springs has taken. He is a member of the board of trustees of Colorado college.

The officers were also much pleased with the contribution of Professor Glle. This is divided as follows: $25 for his son Richard D. Glle, $25 for his son Howard H. Glle, and $25 for his son Clement M. Glle. The committee hopes that this gift will prove an inspiration to other parents and that they will respond with subscriptions in the names of their sons.

Short Line Meets Low Rate on Ore

The Colorado Springs & Cripple Creek district railroad, popularly known as "the Short Line," has met the cut rate on Cripple Creek ores which was inaugurated by the Denver & Southwestern company. The Short Line will haul ores from the district to the Florence, Canon City and Colorado-Philadelphia mills at the $1 flat rate.

This action was decided on yesterday. When asked about it yesterday Mr. D. A. MacWatters said: "The directors held no meeting, but we have decided to meet the cut and have adopted the $1 flat rate. This rate will be a great thing for the district and should increase the output very much.

"The Short Line officials are not saying much about it, but are evidently in the field to meet all competitors. The flat rate will no doubt increase the tonnage very much." The low rate is received with pleasure by the Cripple Creek operators and means renewed activity in the gold camp.

OIL IS FOUND NEAR NEW MILL

Portland Explorations South of Colorado City Said to Have Excellent Results.

Another oil strike is reported to have been made in the vicinity of Colorado Springs. The scene of the new strike is near the new Portland mill, west of this city and south of Colorado City.

A report came to this city yesterday too late for a trip to the scene of operations, stating that the parties who had been boring for oil in the Oak Grove addition in the region of the Portland mill on the Bear Creek road, had been successful and that not far from the mill, in the direction of the Fountain creek, the prospectors had struck oil in promising quantities.

The report came from persons who can be relied upon and who have been confident that the oil strata which are known to exist in this region extended to the south as well as to the north of Colorado City.

It is said that the people who are back of the operations which are now reported to have been successful began to work as soon as it was found that the Atkinson well had encountered encouraging indications. The well is down several hundred feet.

Several days ago a report was received here to the effect that the Portland people had purchased in Florence a large amount of oil-boring machinery. Many real estate dealers both in this city and Colorado City and many local capitalists who have every confidence in the brilliant future of the Pike's Peak region believe that all the conditions are ripe for a season of unprecedented prosperity.

Railroad Men Will Arrive Here Tonight

Two hundred members of the Traveling Passenger Agents association will arrive in this city at about 6:30 this evening on their special train. They will be taken in charge by the local railroad fraternity and will be shown a good time during their short stop in this city.

Arrangements for the entertainment of the visiting railroad men have been completed. The program so far as this city is concerned, includes a concert and a hop at the Antlers tonight. The Antlers will be decorated specially in honor of the visitors. The rotunda and corridors will be decorated with Japanese lanterns and palms and potted plants. The concert will be given in the ball room and following is the program that will be rendered:

March—"The Ameer" ..... Herbert
Antlers Orchestra.
Songs—
(a) "Song of Sleep" ..... Somerset
(b) "King Duncan's Daughter" .....
Alletsen
George Crampton.
Selection—"Florodora" ..... Stuart
Antlers Orchestra.
Duets (Old English)
"Sweet Nightingale."
"Blue Muslin."
Mr. and Mrs. George Crampton.
"Hungarian Fantasie" ..... Moses
Antlers Orchestra.
Solo "Simple Aveu" ..... Thorne
J. C. Lange.

At the conclusion of the concert an informal hop will be held. Tomorrow morning the party will be taken to Cripple Creek over the Short Line. Luncheon will be eaten at the National hotel after which the visitors will be taken over to Victor and around the electric circle which will give them a panoramic view of the greatest gold camp on earth. In the evening the party will return to Colorado Springs and the T. P. As. will leave for Denver and the east.

It will be the effort of the local railroad men to give their visiting brothers as good an impression of Colorado Springs and the Cripple Creek district as is possible feeling that any efforts they may put forth will redound to the good of this city. The traveling passenger agents are a jolly set of men and the local railroad men will doubtless not find it a hard task to entertain them.

Laundry Workers Will Have a Union

In district court room No. 2 last evening there was a meeting of laundry workers including about 20 employes and three or four superintendents and employers, at which it was voted unanimously by the employes that they should organize.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. A. B. Waterman, president of the Federated Trades council. The objects and aims of the Shirt, Waist and Laundry Workers' International union and its affiliation with the general organization of trade workers were thoroughly explained by Messrs. Nelson and Walker, organizers for the American Federation of Labor, by J. D. Gavitt of the Labor News, and R. C. Wright of the Carpenters union. It was stated that the organizing committee of the Federated Trades council believes in the settlement of all difficulties by arbitration and not by strikes.

While the laundry workers of this city have no grievances at present, it seems to them that as the present trend of affairs in all trades is toward organization it is best that they should have an organization of their own. It was decided to have another meeting next Friday evening in the same place as the one held last evening and it is expected that the organization will be perfected at that time.

WHY HE HELPS THE Y. M. C. A.

Dr. I. D. Warner, a leading manufacturer of the manufacturing city of Bridgeport, Conn., and president of the Young Men's Christian association, gave over $75,000 for the erection of the association building, there and provided for the addition of an extensive educational equipment for men engaged in the mechanical trades. He writes:

"1. I believe in young men, for what they are, the home, the town, the state and country will be.

"2. I believe that the association is doing for the average young man what no other institution is doing, or can do, and is doing it in a wider field.

"3. The great mass of young men cannot have a college education, and the association furnishes facilities which are of unquestioned value in aiding them in becoming better home-makers, better citizens and better fitted for business responsibilities.

"4. The association does a great variety of work under one management and does it economically and effectively, and has a far-reaching influence in many directions.

"5. The association is on a broad basis in which people of whatever religious belief unite. I have found no institution which so nearly exemplifies Lincoln's creed: 'Love to God and love to man.'

"6. The growth and development of the association has more than satisfied me that money given to it has borne fruit in excess of my most sanguine expectation."

COLORADO SPRINGS KEEPS SECRETARY'S OFFICE BUSY

Colorado Springs was well represented in the filing of incorporation papers in the secretary of state's office yesterday and before night papers to the value of $5,520,000 had been filed by persons from this city. Early in the day the Rio Blanco Consolidated Oil company filed their articles of incorporation with $1,000,000 capital stock. Henry B. Hayden, Harry A. Williamson and Levi N. Title are the directors.

A short time after that papers were filed by the Lucania transportation Tunnel, Mining and Drainage company of Colorado Springs. This company has a capital stock of $2,500,000, and is fathered by Joseph Lilly, William B. Barnes and Joseph A. Wright. During the afternoon C. F. Rickey, H. C. Shimp and C. R. Buschner, directors of the Colorado Mines Consolidated company of Colorado Springs, filed papers to the value of $2,000,000. The Mesa Oil company of Cheyenne, Wyo., filed local papers to the extent of $15,000, and the Mazdod Mines company of Phoenix, Ariz., did likewise. The two companies will both maintain offices in Colorado Springs.

SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY. The Colorado College Scientific society will meet at 4:15 this afternoon in the art gallery in Perkins hall, to hear papers by Prof. Ahlers, "A Phrase of Modern Literature: the Animal in Man," and by Prof. Noyes "Some Interesting Things in Greek Sculpture." The public is cordially invited.

EXCHANGE BUILDING TO BE READY SOON

The new Mining Exchange building will be ready for occupancy about January 1. On this date the tenants who have engaged rooms in the new building will take possession. As was announced some time ago the first floor will be occupied by the Colorado Springs Trust & Title Guaranty company. The firm has taken a 20 years' lease and has had the rooms specially fitted up for its use. William A. Otis & Co. will have the suite of five rooms on the second floor facing Nevada avenue, and D. V. Donaldson and Walter Scott will have the rooms on the same floor facing Pike's Peak avenue. The rear rooms facing the court will be taken by William Weston and Partridge & Storer. On the third floor will be the Dorsey Investment Co., Boynton and Mullen and Robert L. Hubbard. The Woods Investment company will have a suite of nine room on the fourth floor. Shove and Aldrich and W. W. Price will also be on this floor. The Elkton Consolidated Co. and Bernard and Ford and J. A. Ekelun will occupy the rooms on the fifth floor.

CONTEMPORARY CLUB HELD PRETTY EVENT

The Contemporary club dance given by the older members of the club last night at Ticknor hall was a very pretty affair. The Contemporary club is the name of a literary society composed of a number of the young women of Colorado college. Each year after all the vacant places in the roll have been filled with new names, the older members entertain the newcomers in order that they may know each other better and for the purpose of imbuing them with that loyalty which has made the club so prominent in college life.

The guests as they arrived were greeted by Misses Albert, Campbell and Smeigh. After some time spent in conversation all adjourned to the study room for an evening's dance. Each of the young ladies was presented with a program having engraved upon it the club flower, a red carnation. Excellent music was furnished by the Plaza orchestra. Ices, punch and cake were dispensed later in the evening. Miss Turk, '02, was chairman of the entertainment committee.

The Contemporary club has at the present time 53 members. It is a literary society, meeting every Friday afternoon and devoting its time to music, art, book reviews and other discussions. For the first half of the present college year, a study is being made of social conditions in Norway, Sweden and Russia. The programs, while involving a discussion of deep questions, have nevertheless been handled with a thoroughness which has shown deep study. The officers of the club at present are: President, Miss Albert; vice president, Miss Campbell; secretary-treasurer, Miss Smeigh.

ON THE HANNAH BRITT

The Practical G. M. Co. Expects to Find Good Ore Body at Increased Depth---Golden Cycle Output.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Nov. 22.—The Practical G. M. Co. is deepening the main shaft on the Hannah Britt claim, adjoining the Wild Horse property, on which it has a lease. The shaft is to go to a depth of 725 feet. It is at present down to the 400-foot level, and the leasing company expects to get a good body of ore at the increased depth. The Practical company is also doing other extensive leasing and is to sink 200 feet additional in the shaft on the Pauper on Bull hill, near Independence. This shaft is down to the 250-foot depth and the Practical company has been carrying on extensive work on this depth.

McFinnis and company are sinking on a good-sized vein which shows, assays of nearly $50 per ton, at a depth of about 100 feet. The shaft is to go a few feet deeper when the first level will be run out on the vein. Considerable development work has been outlined, and the lessees are of the opinion that they are close to a pay ore body, the assays while they are receiving being a good indication.

McFarland & Owenby, operating the lease on the main block of the Burns and block No. 1 of the Pharmacist, are doing extensive prospecting in the 300- and 400-foot levels. The lessees have been shipping no ore lately, however, since taking hold of the lease, and are at present giving the best of their attention to small shoots which are exposed in the development work recently done.

Bad air has made its appearance in the Londonderry of the Consolidated company on Bull hill, and operations have been cut down somewhat until better conditions are prevalent. The winze from the 300-foot level is being continued, and at a depth of 15 feet below this point, some good values have been encountered. The work in the Axtell claim of the Midway, which is connected at the 300-foot level, will be continued later. The Midway ground is under lease to William Butler, the manager of the Londonderry property.

The Gold Producer claim on Squaw mountain has been put under bond and lease for $13,000. Good test assays have been had, but no veins that will run any have been found so far. The lease is to pay 20 per cent royalty. The property is owned by Thomas McAfee of Erie, Colo., and Mrs. Julia Whelan and A. H. Davis of Canon City.

The Golden Cycle company is maintaining an output of 70 tons of ore per day, and is at the same time accomplishing some important development work. The company is making preparations for a heavier rate of production, which will be made as soon as the vein has been cut in the bottom levels. This will add about 200 feet of stoping ground on the large ore body on the Revenue Cutter vein.

NEW STRIKE ON THE ACACIA

New Vein Carrying Three Inches of Rich Ore Opened in the 500-foot Level---Large Shipment Marketed From That Depth.

A promising strike has just been made in the main workings of the Acacia old Mining company, an entirely new vein having been opened in a winze sunk from the 500-foot level 20 feet west of the shaft. The vein is three feet wide, carries three inches of ore which is yielding assays between $100 and $1,000 in gold to the ton. Drifts have been run at the 500-foot level at the bottom of the winze and the ore is still found in the workings. There will be 100 feet of virgin stoping ground immediately available.

The largest shipment ever marketed from the 500-foot level of the mine has just been closed, amounting to 83 tons of $80 ore which will bring in to the company between $1,200 and $1,500 in royalties.

Hines and Company are driving a drift at the 350-foot level south of a basalt dike, and are encountering encouraging indications. These lessees have been doing very good development for some time past and have shipped some ore at intervals since they started operations.

On the Fitch lease sinking is in progress below the 200-foot level, it being the intention to get another 50-foot lift as quickly as possible. A couple of hundred fine specimens of ore have been obtained from these workings, and the lessees are very hopeful of future development.

Lessees Owenby and McFarland sent out a car of $80 ore last week. They have opened the continuation of the Wrockloff shoot, and are taking out much ore. The property is being actively developed, and the company is receiving a very good income from the royalties paid by the lessees.

ARROW DECLARES ITS DIVIDEND

At the Rate of Five Cents a Share Payable Next Friday---This Marks the Conclusion of a Tangled Litigation.

The directors of the Arrow Gold Mining company met yesterday and declared a dividend of five cents per share on the total amount of stock outstanding. The dividend is made payable on November 29, a week from yesterday, and the books close previous to the distribution on Wednesday, November 27.

The dividend is declared out of the money which was received from the Orphan Belle company in return for the Arrow's property, the sum amounting to $54,000. Although the company is now without other assets than its incorporation and a small sum in cash to pay off the company's indebtedness, it will not yet go out of existence, it being the plan of the directors to change in some leasing, subject to the approval of the stockholders.

Yesterday the articles of incorporation were filed for the new Empire State company which has been organized to take over the property of the Arrow company and of the Orphan, and the payment of dividends of the Arrow and Orphan companies and the organization of the new corporation winds up what has been one of the most tangled of Cripple Creek litigations. Rather than wait for a number of years to decide the merits of the case, representatives of the companies decided that it was best to cut the Gordian knot by the compromise which gave back the properties to the original company on the payment of the money which it originally received.

ST. PATRICK CUTTING A STATION

At a Depth of 600 Feet---Gold Coin Shoot Not Expected Until the 800-foot Level Is Reached.

The directors of the Ledge Mining and Milling company held a meeting in Denver yesterday to take action in regard to the recent fire which destroyed the new shaft house on the company's property in the San Juans. By the time of the meeting the full particulars of the fire had been received, and it could be reported to the meeting that the loss, which was at first reported to be $20,000, amounted only to $10,000, as only the shaft house was burned, and this is fully covered by insurance. Moreover, the fire destroyed the timbering in the shaft only for a depth of 20 feet below the surface, so that the work of retimbering will not amount to much. The big hoist in the shaft house was saved.

The directors decided to rebuild the shaft house at once and to purchase whatever machinery is necessary to retube the mine, so that work can begin promptly in the spring, and orders were also placed for the erection of the 150-ton mill, so that it can be ready for operation early in the summer.

Developments in the mine below the fifth level, recently carried on, have proven that the ore at this depth is better and richer than ever before, and the prospects for the company when work is started are very bright. It is thought that after the mill has been running for a short time the company will be on a dividend-paying basis as there is a vast amount of ore opened up enough to keep the mill in operation for three years at its full capacity without carrying on any further development work.

LEDGE MILL HAS BEEN ORDERED

The Directors Have Provided for the Mill and a New Shaft House---Recent Fire Was Not So Serious as at First Reported.

A station is now being cut out at a depth of 600 feet in the St. Patrick mine, and a pump is being installed to take care of a small flow of water which has just been encountered—about five gallons an hour. No development work will be carried on at this depth, however, but the shaft will be pushed right on down to the 800-foot point, where a drift will be started northward from the shaft to explore for the Gold Coin ore shoot.

The St. Patrick property adjoins the Gold Coin property and carries the extension of the vein. In the upper levels of the mine no ore in shipping quantities has been opened, but it has not been expected. It is the theory that the Gold Coin shoot pitches to the south at an angle which will bring it into the St. Patrick workings at a depth of 800 feet. If the present pitch is maintained, this will be so.

Therefore no drifting will be done until the 800-foot depth is reached, as it is not probable the shoot would be encountered even if a drift should be sent northward on the vein to the line at the present depth.

The St. Patrick has excellent prospects for an undeveloped piece of ground, and the work is being carried on at a very good rate, under the management of Mr. W. Weston. The company is doing the work on its own account, and has recently increased its capitalization from $50,000 to $100,000 for the purpose of carrying on the development.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

The effect of the vigorous advertising which is being done in the east by the mining exchange is beginning to be felt by some of the larger brokerage houses. Two or three firms reported yesterday that their eastern business was looking up to some extent, and the revival or the starting of interest in the east is testified to by a great number of telegraphic orders which are being received. The depressed condition of the market is acknowledged to be only a temporary affair, and with the activity of Cripple Creek and the growing activity of the mining exchange and the brokers individually in their solicitation for business, it seems probable that a very good market is due in a short time.

RECENT SHIPMENTS MADE BY SEVERAL LESSEES.

Gooding & Co., who are operating a block of the Work company's ground, made a shipment of a broad gauge carload that will run at least $50 a ton. The ore came from a depth of 190 feet, where a three-foot vein has been followed for a distance of 40 feet. About 10 inches of the rock is of this grade ore.

The Sid Saint is the name of a lease on a portion of the south end of the Black Belle on Beacon hill, which is being worked by W. C. Chambers and others. It promises to turn out to be a winner. A trial shipment of 12 tons was sent out and assays indicate a value of $40 a ton. Mr. Chambers has spent in the neighborhood of $3,000 in leasing and this is the first time that he has struck it.

The Cripple Creek Mining company, leasing on the Deadwood No. 2, received returns today from a small shipment of high grade ore, giving the remarkable value of 197 ounces gold, or $2,140 to the ton. The company has just completed the sinking of the shaft to a depth of 750 feet, and has started a crosscut to the point underneath this rich ore.

Frank Hubbard and associates, leasing on the Morning Star, owned by the Enterprise company, will make their first carload shipment on Monday. They have cut eight tons of ore. They are obtaining assays on a two-foot seam of quartz that runs from $8 to $100.

King & Whiting, leasing on a block of the Hull City placer, shipped 60 tons of screenings yesterday estimated to be worth $40 a ton.

Stockkin and associates, leasing on the Maggie on the west slope of Bull hill, are developing an immense ore body found in a lead or dike 200 feet below the surface. The mineral between walls measures 12 feet, and averages $15 a ton without sorting. By careful screening, the shipping ore brings values of $40 a ton. A 10-ton shipment last week was settled for at this rate.

LEASES, DEEDS AND PAPERS RECENTLY FILED.

Ashbaugh and associates have secured an 18 months' lease on the Hartler on Raven hill, and have let a contract for 75 feet of sinking. Some good ore has been shipped from this property in the past.

Articles of incorporation of the Fountain Mining & Milling company, incorporated under the laws of the state of Nebraska, and capitalized for $1,000,000 in shares of $10 each, have been filed. The company will work the Twin Potosi claims lode. The directors are D. A. Kilpatrick, J. O. Phillips, W. H. Hovel, N. P. Van Winkle, N. C. Tullaferro and H. C. Barton, all of Omaha and Falls City, Neb.

A mining deed was filed yesterday in which E. S. Woolley transfers to C. M. Woolley a 7-64 interest in the Gold Bug lode claim. The revenue stamps indicate a consideration of $6,600.

James Smith has secured an 18 months' lease on the Gettysburg on Raven hill, owned by the Doctor-Jack Pot company. It is known that at least one vein, which carries pay ore, runs through the ground.

RECENT STRIKES MADE BY NUMEROUS LESSEES.

A big strike on the Mary Ann on Gold hill has been reported. Although no definite information has been given out, miners working in that vicinity claim that the ore unearthed is very rich.

The big strike made by Terrell & Burke on the Colorado Boss, is holding its own and gives promise of being the biggest surface find in the history of the camp.

Lessees working on the Dolly Varden, owned by the Enterprise company, have opened up four feet of pay ore. A steady output from this time forward will be in order. The Dolly Varden was one of the big shippers of Raven hill about five years ago, but the ore shoot was lost as depth was gained.

Lessees working on the Magna Charta on the south slope of Ironclad hill have opened up a wide body of low grade ore at the surface. A shipment will be sent out soon. Assays indicate a value of about $30 a ton.

At a depth of 10 feet Kane and associates, leasing on the north end of the Teuton, have opened up a four-foot vein of $12 ore. The shaft on the old workings has been sunk to a depth of 110 feet, and when the 150-foot point is reached a crosscut will be run to the Damon vein. In the meantime the lessee will prospect their new find.

Terrell and associates, leasing on the Colorado Boss No. 2, owned by the Cripple Creek Consolidated company, have another shipment read to be sent out. The entire bottom of their shaft, which is only 15 feet down, is in ore. Some of the rock shows sylvanite in abundance.

A vein three feet wide averaging $30 a ton has been cut by the Cripple Creek Gold Temple Mining company at a depth of 300 feet on the Trilby adjoining the Gold Sovereign and Dante properties on Bull hill.

The Omaha-Cripple Creek Mining and Leasing company has opened up a fine body of ore in the Maude Helena on Bull hill. The streak of pay is about 10 inches wide and assays have been obtained that run as high as $240 to the ton.

MAGNET ROCK WINS SUIT IN PUEBLO.

In the land office in Pueblo Thursday a decision was handed down involving title to some valuable land in the Cripple Creek district. The case was a protest of Lottie Thompson and others against the Magnet Rock Mining company, disputing the rights of the corporation to the Magnet Rock and Bulldozer lodes, lying southwest of the outskirts of Cripple Creek, and but two miles from the Portland and Independence mines.

The decision dismisses the protest on the ground that the allegations are insufficient to warrant a hearing, but goes farther and rejects the application of the protestee for a patent for the two lodes on account of lapses.

SHAFT ON JOLLY JANE IS DOWN 240 FEET.

Work on the shaft of the Tecumseh claim, owned by the Jolly Jane company, is being steadily pushed, and it has now reached a depth of 240 feet. The property adjoins Stratton's Independence on the south, and it is on the theory that deep deposits are to be found at the foot of Battle mountain under the east portion of the city of Victor, as the Gold Coin has on the west, that the shaft is being driven downward. The aim is to sink 500 feet as rapidly as possible. The company also owns the Grace Arthur claim on Beacon hill just below the El Paso, which has been attracting so much attention recently.

OUTPUT FOR NOVEMBER SEEMS RECORD BREAKER.

The first two-thirds of the month of November seems to be a record breaker in the way of production for the mining district of Cripple Creek. Almost without exception the big mines of the camp have been able to maintain a big production throughout the month. Many of the smaller properties have entered the shipping list. The estimates tend to show that the production for this month will be near $2,500,000. Judging from the enormous output and the work of the smelters and mills Cripple Creek is more flourishing than ever before. Probably the largest producers for the month will be that made from the Stratton's Independence Limited. The output of this mine will reach nearly 9,000 tons of an average of $40 a ton.

The Cripple Creek sampler, the largest in the district is running through from 350 to 400 tons a day. About all the ore which is handled is sent to the Colorado-Philadelphia and the Standard mills at Colorado City.

To those who inspected the Mountain Boy during the last two weeks we say, come again. If you don't admit that we will soon have a mine and a big one, then we don't know one when we see it. You don't have to hurry, the electric hoist will carry you down and up slowly if you wish. Everybody welcome. Call or write for modest little booklet about Mountain Boy, then show it to your broker and ask him if he knows of any stock quite so good for quick profit or safe investment. THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, Nov. 22.—The mining stock market today manifested still further indications of recovery, and in the afternoon the trading developed two striking good advances which holds fair encouragement for those who have not been optimistic of the outcome of the troubles of the last week or more. Butcrity opened. After trading in the afternoon by selling at 20. The Notarton sold. There is little of this stock on the open market and it is thought that the stock is being supported by the inside. Elkton in the morning sold as low as $1.48¾, but advanced to $1.50 in the afternoon although the trading was slack. Gold Dollar was stationary at 1.. but 52 was bid for Dorter with the offer of an advance of a cent over previous prices. Golden Cycle sold at 62 but less was said at 57½ and Magna Charta sold at only 8½. Pointer advanced to 6 and Vindicator fell off to $1.22½. Sunset-Eclipse was in demand at 11½, but the majority of stocks in the properties that were very inactive and developed among those which were traded in considerable weakness. The number of stocks which are gradually coming from dollar down to dollar and the one cent a share mark is somewhat depressing to those who hold low priced stocks; but this class of stocks is always the first to feel any impetus to advance at the outset of a boom and many believe but that a boom is due in good time.

CAUSE OF DEAFNESS,

The Most Common Cause Only Recently Discovered.

It has been stated on good medical authority that nine-tenths of cases of deafness are caused from catarrh or from sore throat trouble.

The little tube which leads to the ear from the throat is lined with a sort of velvety structure called mucous membrane. This membrane is simply a continuation of the mucous membrane lining the throat. When disease of any sort attacks the mucous membrane of the throat it is very liable to extend into the Eustachian tube and up into the ear.

The history of nearly all cases of deafness is like this: A cold is contracted and neglected, other colds are taken, the throat becomes sore and inflamed, which is aggravated by particles of dust and germs from the air. This condition causes the disease to spread into the tube that leads to the ear.

It seems a little far fetched to say that most cases of deafness are caused from catarrh, but it is certainly true, and anyone who has had a severe catarrhal cold must have noticed how the hearing was affected while the cold lasted.

With catarrh sufferers this impairment of hearing becomes chronic and grows worse the longer the catarrh is neglected.

You can cure catarrh and deafness by the regular use of an excellent new preparation called Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, composed of antiseptic remedies which act both on the mucous membranes, but principally and most effectually on the blood, eliminating the catarrhal poison from the system.

People whose hearing is defective may think it a little remarkable that a simple and harmless tablet would very often remove all traces of deafness, but when it is remembered that catarrh causes the deafness and that the catarrh is easily cured by the regular use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets there is no mystery about it.

If you are subject to nasal catarrh or catarrh of throat, bronchial tubes or catarrh of stomach and liver, the safest and most effective treatment is the new catarrh specific, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, sold by all druggists at 50 cents for full sized package.

EASTERN MARKETS

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 22.—The strength in today's bread and animated market was the sequence of the sudden awakening of a speculative activity yesterday afternoon. A large bear account was covered as a consequent of the short selling by the professional element for some time on the assumption that the money market could not escape a squeeze between now and the first of the year. The unexpected collapse in the foreign exchange market and the prospect of recuperation for the money market left the bears without much ground to stand on, and they bought eagerly to cover the day. This was a considerable influence in the recovery of prices. The clearing up of the money situation leaves the way open for the natural operation of various forces making toward higher prices. The character of today's market made it appear that a considerable speculative element has been waiting and eagerly on the watch for just this development. The demand for some of the favorite stocks was on a very heavy scale and the day's transactions were run up once more to over 1,000,000 shares. The considerable advance during the day invited profit-taking in the final dealings and last prices on the principal stocks were between one and two points lower. People's Gas tumbled 2¾ from the best and Consolidated Gas slumped 4½. The aggressive strength of New York Central and Manhattan continued. No information was forthcoming to explain these movements.

The October statement of the net earnings of New Jersey Central, showing an increase of no less than 165 per cent. over those of October of last year was simply explanation of the recent strength in the anthracite coalers. The collapse in the foreign exchange market was due to the sudden falling off in the demand to cover maturities, which has been a feature of the market for several weeks. The further decline in the price of gold in London and an advance in the sterling rate at Paris corroborated the assurance that the foreign requirements for gold are satisfied for the present. The net result of the interior movement of currency more than offset the drain on account of the gold exports. The banks have lost to the sub-treasury up to this evening $2,574,000, which includes the payment for the gold exported. The net gain on the interior movement by express is estimated at something over $2,000,000 and $1,000,000 in gold has come in from Canada. The banks are estimated, therefore, to be gainers for the week to the extent of several hundred thousand dollars, notwithstanding the shipment abroad of $7,596,522 in gold. Total sales today, 1,950,800 shares.

The railroad bond market was quite active and strong. Total sales, par value, $4,870,000.

United States refunding 2s advanced ¼ per cent on the last call.

ALL WRONG

The Mistake is Made by Many Colorado Springs Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

If kidneys are disordered relief is impossible.

Backache is kidney ache.

You must cure the kidneys.

A Colorado Springs resident tells you how this can be done.

Mrs. E. H. Kennedy of 316 North Pikin street says: "If everyone in Colorado Springs who suffers from kidney complaint, backache or any of the consequences which accompany that too prevalent affliction, received as much benefit from the treatment prescribed by Doan's Kidney Pills as I, they will not only recommend them to the public but they will advise everyone they meet to call at Jones & Weddington's drug store, 109 N. Tejon street, buy a box, take it according to directions and they will be surprised at the results.

For sale by all dealers; price, 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

21. The feature of the market was a recovery in the American department the bear contingent strength in New York. There was little fresh buying, London being still a seller on balance but New York persistently absorbed the coal stocks. The features were New York Central and Norfolk & Western, the latter touching the record price of 105. The market closed cheerful and at the top.

Money rates rule steady.

DUN REPORTS GOOD CAUSE FOR THANKS

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 22.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Never before in the history of the United States was there such good reason for giving of national thanks. The country has made unprecedented strides toward a position of international supremacy not only in commerce, but also in finance. To a marked degree business enterprises have proved successful and an idle wheel in mill or factory is the exception, while labor is so well employed at high wages that conspicuous demands sustain the market values of all staple commodities. Transportation facilities have been unable to keep pace with the nation's requirements, making a multiplicity of tardy deliveries which alone act as a brake on commercial progress.

Strength is the rule in the market for farm products. Favorable weather during the closing days of corn harvesting failed to bring any reduction from the highest price level in many years.

Wheat holds at about three cents above last year's price, despite the marked difference in size of crops. Receipts for the week were 5,040,417 bushels, against 2,606,776 bushels last year. Speculation in coffee has resumed normal proportions.

Failures for the week numbered 218 in the United States, against 238 last year, and 31 in Canada, against 29 last year.

MISCALLED "HAIR TONICS."

Most Hair Preparations are Merely Scalp Irritants, of No Value.

Most hair preparations are merely scalp irritants, miscalled hair tonics. When hair is brittle, lusterless and begins to fall out, the dandruff germ is getting in its deadly work at the root, sapping the vitality. Since science discovered that dandruff is a germ disease there has been only one preparation put on the market that will actually destroy the dandruff germ, and that is Newbro's Herpicide. It allays itching instantly, destroys the germ, and then falling hair stops, and hair grows luxuriantly. Ask your druggist for Herpicide. It allays itching instantly; makes hair grow.

Jumped on a Ten Penny Nail.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well-known merchant of Forkland, Ala. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by all druggists.

GROWING OLD GRACEFULLY.

Nothing is so interesting, nothing so restful and refreshing, as to see a man and woman who have lived together for a quarter of a century, starting down the shady slope of life, hand in hand and happy, or they were when she, with flushed face, heard love's old, sweet song. Marriage is often a failure because people marry without even giving the future a thought, marry and go to work and work without relaxation till they are ready to die. I once heard a lady telling her daughter what to do when she was married. "Take a trip," she said, "get married in winter time when the world is cheerless and you are short on sunshine; take a trip to the southern states and turn winter into summer again; go to Little Rock, Hot Springs, or San Antonio, and get acquainted with your husband; watch him at the hotel, and see what he likes to eat, and how and when he likes it. It won't hurt you to study his comfort a little; it would make him love you more. But you must know something of him before you are married. Never marry a man who will laugh at the jokes on mothers-in-law at the minstrel show, or who will not buy his wedding tour tickets over the Missouri Pacific Railway."

ON THE SHORT LINE.

Effective November 3rd, 1901, Short Line trains for Cripple Creek District will leave Colorado Springs at 7:55 a. m., 8:00 a. m., 10:37 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. Trains will arrive Colorado Springs from Cripple Creek at 9:10 a. m., 10:05 a. m., 3:25 p. m. and 6:45 p. m.

How to Get a $1,000 Insurance Policy Free

You take the Gazette now and pay sixty cents a month for it. In a year you pay $7.20 for The Gazette or some other paper. To get this policy you have simply to pay your subscription to the Gazette in advance instead of month by month, and your Gazette costs twenty cents less when paying yearly than when paying monthly. The Gazette pays the premium on your insurance. You pay for The Gazette for six months or one year and receive from The Maryland Casualty Company a $1,000 policy with a receipt for the year's premiums, that's all, except that you must be over 16 and under 65.

APPLICATION BLANK, FILL OUT AND SIGN.

Subscribers must be over 16 and under 65 years of age to avail themselves of this offer. Fill out this blank, write name and address plainly, and the policy will be delivered within a few days. Applicants must remit $3.75 for six months subscription and $7.00 for one year's subscription with this application, for which we will deliver The Daily and Sunday Gazette from the date of signing the application.

This policy does not insure any person who is either partially or wholly blind, deaf, crippled, paralyzed, insane, or subject to epilepsy, fits, sleep walking or vertigo.

may take advantage of this proposition. Just pay $7.00 for the Gazette a year in advance or $3.75 for six months in advance, and you get both the paper and the Insurance Policy. If you don't already take the Gazette regularly begin it now. It's cheaper to take it by carrier than to buy it on the street, and you're sure of having it every day. There is no better newspaper in all of Colorado than the Gazette. No other Colorado paper is so widely quoted as the Gazette. No Colorado paper gives as much news as the Gazette. You may not agree with the Gazette politically, but you'll like and respect the fairness and strength of its policy. You'll appreciate the reliability of its news, and the absolute impartiality with which it is handled. You'll learn more of the resources of Colorado, and the opportunities of Colorado Springs through the Gazette than through any other Colorado paper.

THE GAZETTE STANDS FOR

The substantial promotion of Colorado's interests; the growth and upbuilding of Colorado Springs; honesty, economy and equality in our governmental institutions; reliability, fair play and purity in its news. The Gazette is more widely read than any other Colorado Springs paper. It is adding readers and admirers every day. Having for its aim the highest possible standard of intellectual, moral and news worth it day by day grows constantly better and greater. It costs the same as inferior newspapers and gives you

FOR SALE REAL ESTATE

SPILLANE & KEARNS,
Wood Ave. and Washington St.

We have had all kinds of luck with our new houses on Wood avenue and Washington street. All the world has come out to see them, and, I tell you, last night, some of the visitors have found our ideas so good that they have taken them without our leave and put them into their own homes. That is all right in a way, but like all people who don't quite know how to originate, they cannot use the ideas correctly. Thus the houses which we have seen that are modeled after our Swiss and Chinese effects are beautifully mixed up and belong to some style not yet discovered. Next week we will have two houses shaped up that will open the eyes of all the world that loves something beautiful. Just come out and see our new houses and look at the interior of our other houses nearly finished any time from 9 to 5 p. m.

We have a few houses of our own for rent:

A 6-roomed house on Washington st.

A 9-roomed house on Tejon st., 2000 block.

An 8-roomed house, fully modern, at Bijou st., west side, 5 minutes' walk from postoffice.

All houses new and modern. Address us, box 1074.

SPILLANE & KEARNS,
Wood Ave. and Washington St.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Forecast for Colorado: Fair Saturday; Sunday probably colder in northeastern portion; fair; variable winds.

Satisfied people wear Ashby's spectacles.

PROGRESS CLUB—The Progress club will hold a meeting at the Alta Vista this afternoon from 2 to ——

MARRIAGE LICENSE—The county clerk has issued a marriage license to J. H. Fuller and Elizabeth Kyle, both of Victor.

SATURDAY MARKET—The ladies of Grace Church Guild will hold their usual Saturday market at 2:30 p. m. today in the Guild room of the church.

WARRANTY DEED—The following warranty deed was filed for record in the county clerk's office yesterday: C. B. Phay to John B. Preston, lot 11, block 59, East Colorado City, $1,000.

BUILDING PERMIT—W. H. Evans was yesterday granted a permit by the building inspector to erect a five-room residence with bath at 531 East Columbia street to cost about $2,500.

NEW YEAR BALL—The first annual ball of the W. of W. degree team, Pike's Peak camp No. 3, will be held at Temple theater on New Year's eve. Music will be furnished by the Midland orchestra.

PRIVATE CAR PARTY—Mr. Henry Marucchi, manager of the Antlers, was entertained yesterday by James MacKie, vice president of the Mexican International railroad, in the latter's private car. The Le Boun party of London, who have been guests at the Antlers in route to California, were also of the party.

INCORPORATION—Articles of incorporation of the Empire State Consolidated Gold Mining company were filed with the county clerk yesterday. The company is incorporated under the laws of Wyoming with a capitalization of $212,500, divided into shares of the par value of 25 cents each. The company will operate in Arapahoe, Teller and El Paso counties. In Colorado, Nelson B. Williams, George D. Kilbourn and W. H. Spurgeon are named as trustees to have general charge of the company's affairs.

ARRESTED AND RELEASED—"Bad Alley Bill," alias William Harvey, was again arrested on Thursday evening, this time upon the complaint of David Huff. It is said that on a street car Thursday evening Huff used rather torrid language in connection with people whom he called "niggers." Harvey is said to have resented this and when he got off the car it is said he struck Huff a heavy blow behind the ear whereupon Huff had "Bad Alley" arrested. The case was called in police court yesterday morning but as Huff failed to appear, Harvey was released from custody.

DEATH OF MISS BUSCHMANN—A telegram was received in this city yesterday by Mr. Adolph Fehringer, announcing the death of Mrs. Fehringer's sister, Miss Cora Buschmann, at her home in St. Louis on Thursday. Miss Buschmann resided here for a number of years, and was for a long time a visitor in the Fehringer family. Her many friends here will be grieved to hear of her untimely death. She was a young lady of exceptional strength of character and had many lovable qualities that endeared her to those who knew her. The date of the funeral could not be ascertained yesterday.

Well Worth a Visit.

Most things that are good, sooner or later find their way to Colorado Springs.

That this is true is shown by the fact that 2 lots of genuine Navajo Indian Blankets, that were awarded the first prize at the New Mexico territorial fair held at Albuquerque, have been sent to this city to be sold. They have been secured by Mr. Kirschner, the furrier, on Pike's Peak avenue, and can be examined there any day. Genuine Indian blankets are becoming more scarce as the years go by, so that lovers of these fine goods should avail themselves of this chance to secure one.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. For sale by all druggists.
